FURIOUS BATTLE STILL IN PROGRESS

MUKDEN, October 13.—The battle south of this place continued throughout Wednesday with ever increasing fury. In respect of desperateness, bravery and bloodshed, it far exceeds the battle of Liao Yang.

Towards evening the Japanese repeatedly assumed the offensive. The fight continues today with unabated fury. It is now the fourth day of the battle.

A. P. BOOTH IS AMONG THE MISSING.

A. P. BOOTH.

Oakland Man Disappears From His Lodgings in the South.

SAN BERNARDINO, October 13.—A. P. Booth, an Oakland machinist, who came here some time ago crippled with rheumatism, is missing and there are fears that he may have become despondent and committed suicide or been foully dealt with.

He has been missing from his lodgings since October 4th, the matter being reported to the police today, who wired the missing man's brother, Charles S. Booth, of the Oakland Iron Works, supposing that he might have returned home.

All Booth's effects are left here, and his brother has heard nothing from him.

Booth was crippled in the hands and feet and had difficulty in walking, even with the assistance of a cane.

His condition did not improve, which fact caused him considerable worry. When last seen he seemed greatly dejected.

He had just received a remittance from his brother, and it is not believed that he left town to locate elsewhere, as he would have removed his baggage.

In response to information regarding the mysterious disappearance of his brother, contained in substance in the above telegram, Charles S. Booth, who resides at 820 Sixteenth street, and who is president of the United Iron Works, formerly the Oakland Iron Works of this city, left last night for San Bernadrino, to make an attempt to locate the missing man, or at least, to clear up the mystery regarding the disappearance.

Charles Booth reached San Bernardino today and it is expected that he will inform his family here, at the earliest posible moment, of the result of his quest.

HELPLESS CONDITION.

The unwelcome tidings regarding the missing brother have caused Charles S. Booth a great deal of uneasiness all the more so because of the almost helpless physical condition of the missing man, even when surrounded by relatives and friends.

DANGER OF MURDER.

The fact that the missing man had but recently been in receipt of a pecuniary remittance from his brother in this city lends a suspicion of tragedy to the disappearance.

PREVIOUS CRIMES.

This fear is augmented by the fact that a number of crimes involving robbery and murder have been committed in the section in which the unfortunate sought simply for ease from pain.

Despite these fears, hope is cherished that he may be wandering aimlessly about, having become temporarily mentally affected, owing, perhaps, to undue exposure to the extreme heat in an ill-advised trip to too great a distance in the desert, and that he may yet be discovered in time to enable him to regain consciousness and health.

LONG INCAPACITATED.

A. P. Booth was about 40 years of age and followed the calling of machinist until a number of years ago when he became helplessly disabled by reason of rheumatism of the hands and lower limbs.

He was able, however, to maintain himself by reason of some means which were left him some time ago and which he husbanded with great care, using only what was necessary to maintain him in a contented manner.

From time to time, he was the object of fraternal gratuity of his brother Charles S. Booth.

Last winter, he spent in the East where he thought, for a time, he was improving, but that was a mistake. He returned here last spring and suffered a great deal. He then went to San Bernardino where, it seems, he found greatest relief near the heat of the desert, although his relatives here, say that he was not there even, immune from rheumatic misery.

FIERCE FIGHTING.

Japs and Russ Soldiers Battle at Close Quarters.

TOKIO, October 13, 2 p. m.—It is yet too early to measure the results of the tremendous struggle which has been waged for the past three days south of Mukden, but all reports reaching Tokio indicate that General Kuropatkin has been decisively whipped and severely punished. The Russian commander was evidently caught while making his dispositions with his forces scattered and he was beaten before he could recover.

Much depends on the ability and the resolution of the Japanese in applying and following up their advantages. Kuropatkin may turn upon favorable ground and succeed in beating back the Japanese onslaught, but the tide seems against him.

The Japanese yesterday began a desperate effort to turn the Russian right and if this effort should be successful it will carry disaster to the Russian arms.

The struggle around Benshu is being followed with intense interest here. The Russian force there is estimated at five thousand, and its isolation or loss would be a severe blow.

Estimates of the total forces engaged vary. One telegram from Liao Yang says that the Russians have 200,000 men, with 1000 guns. The Japanese force exceeds the number engaged at the battle of Liao Yang.

SUSTAINS THE POLICY OF PRESIDENT.

Professor Moses Makes a Defense of the Republican Policy in Islands.

BERKELEY, Oct. 13.—"It is safe to say that if the Philippine Islands were abandoned they would go back to their former condition," declared Professor Bernard Moses of the University of California, a former member of the Philippine Commission, in an address to his class in government at the University this morning.

"Despite the agitation for Philippine independence in this country the question is absolutely impracticable. The islands will not become independent. If we desert them others will at once take our place. They will do what we fail to do. As a whole the islands can only benefit by the rule of an enlightened nation."

Professor Moses' speech was practically a defense of the Republican policy and a refutation of the arguments that are now being used by the Democratic party in the national campaign. Other portions of the Professor's address were:

BRIGHT PEOPLE.

"There are bright and educated people in some of the Philippine colonies. To the administration of these I do not refer. I speak of the lower or less developed races. It is an evident fact of social growth that one generation succeeds another with very few changes. Some people develop peculiar laws and customs on account of long isolation from other people. Such conditions are characteristic of early centuries and thus various civilizations grew up.

"Today it is different with the barbarian nations. If the barbarians of today had the capacity they would not be allowed to develop an independent social condition. Desire of great nations to expand commerce and rapid transportation does not allow this century long development of barbarian nations.

BARBARIANS.

"In old times it was allowed barbarian nations to work out their social and governmental welfare. Once a people had centuries to stagnate or develop its situation. This is all changed now. Commercial relations bring people in all parts of the world together. Modern times rob semi-civilized nations of local race prejudices.

THEIR PROTECTORS

"We consider our own independence as the paramount political good. This may be an exaggerated view. We do not today live up to this rule in dealing with other nations. Barbarians today are not given a chance to become independent. Regions like the Philippines are today not able to become pratically independent. The advantages of control become apparent when a barbarian nation is liberally managed by some more enlightened neighbor. Lower people develop and gain by contact with their enlightened protectors. They learn a modern language, modern laws and modern social conditions. There is no real connection between personal liberty and political freedom.

"In spite of exactions by the Dutch in Java there is more liberty and independence there than in States where people are under control of native princes. If the rule of a reckless or semi-barbarous government is extended over other nations nothing is gained but if a good government gets control of a lower nation good only results.

AMERICAN RULE.

"Under American rule the education has advanced and started on new and better lines in the Philippines. There is no reason for stopping this control. Ultimately the stronger nation must stand for its own law and social ideas and these will invariably outlast the customs of the inferior nation. We must develop in the Philippines our ideas of law and liberty and the way in which to maintain these laws and ideas."

WATER HEARING BEHIND CLOSED DOORS.

Special Committee Being Criticised For Shutting Out the Public.

The special water committee appointed by President Dornin of the City Council took up its labors yesterday at a meeting called at the Mayor's office. All members of the committee, except J. K. Moffitt, were present.

Mayor Olney was elected president of the committee. Councilman Edwin Meese was elected chairman. The committee will hold daily sessions until the work is completed.

Yesterday there were no specific propositions taken up beyond the consideration of the projects advanced by Engineer Miller and that of Councilman Dornin, both of which have for their basis a system of artesian wells in the southern end of the county.

Today's session will be devoted principally to the consideration of President Dornin's proposition, which will cost, it is estimated, $3,2000,000. Miller's project will also be given attention.

While considering the various projects the meetings of the committee will be executive. All members of the City Council are invited to be present, but spectators will not be allowed.

A committee on the press has been appointed and will give out the news to the various newspapers.

The special committee on water supply of the City Council is being sharply criticized for the decision to hold its hearings behind closed doors. No necessity for this secrecy appears, and a resort to what has the semblance of furtive methods, is operating to discredit the Council's future action at the outset of the committee's inquiry. The general feeling is that all the hearing should be open to the public, and so entirely above-board as to be free from any suspicion of concealment. The recent example of the Central Park matter is not to be ignored, for the emphatic condemnation by the people of that project clearly shows that this community will resent any back-room arrangement from which they are shut out.

BATTLESHIP HIT

CHE FOO, October 13 (7 p. m.)—Local Russians confirm the report that the Russian battleship Retvizan was recently hit by a shell from one of the new big Japanese guns, but they claim that the damage done was slight. Two sailors were killed. Another shell burst near the Russian gunboat Giliak, killing her commander and injuring others. The Russians admit that the new Japanese guns seriously threaten the harbor, docks, eetc. They believe, however, that the squadron at Port Arthur will remain inside the harbor until the arrival of the Baltic fleet.

MIKADO'S MEN ARE VICTORS.

Tokio Claims Japs Are Steadily Gaining Ground.

While containing no positive information regarding specific results, today's dispatches from both Russian and Japanese sources seem to indicate that the tide of the general engagement now in progress between the Hun and Taitse rivers is favorable to Marshal Oyama. A Tokio dispatch filed at 4 o'clock this afternoon says the latest reports from the front tell of continued Japanese successes, while St. Petersburg confesses that no reports of to-day's developments have been received and admits that in the previous fighting "the Russians had not been entirely successful in defending their positions."

"The atmosphere at the War Office," adds the dispatch, "is by no means cheerful."

The lack of advices from the Russian front is regarded as significant, Oyama, reporting on yesterday's results, expresses satisfaction and says that his center and right armies made substantial gains. The keynote of the battle seems to be a counter attack delivered by Oyama to offset Kuropatkin's blow at the Japanese right.

As soon as the weight of this movement on the part of the Russians became apparent the Japanese commander responded with an attack in force on his opponent's right, evidently with the hope of crumpling Kuropatkin's western columns back and diverting some strength from the Russian assault on his own eastern position.

Concerning this flanking movement, Oyama reports that it is "progressing favorably toward the attainment of our first object."

Oku reports the capture of twenty-five additional Russian guns, making a total of thirty that have fallen into the hands of the Japanese.

GENERAL OKU CAPTURES GUNS

TOKIO, October 13 (4 p. m.)—General Oku has captured twenty-five Russian guns, making a total of about thirty Russian guns which have fallen into the hands of the Japanese since the battle began.

The latest reports from the front tell of continued Japanese successes.

GIVES DETAILS OF THE FIGHT

ST. PETERSBURG, October 13.—General Sakharoff in a dispatch to the general staff dated October 11,, gives some details of the operations of Monday and Tuesday. He says:

"The Manchurian army October 10 strengthened its hold on the positions taken the previous evening five miles south of Sakhe river.

"At about 3 in the morning, October 10, the enemy took the offensive between the Mandarin road and the village of Toumytsa, north of Yental, with about a division of infantry and several batteries of artillery. The enemy's attack was checked by the fire of our advance guards. They maintained an artillery bombardment until evening.

"On October 11, the Japanese attacked the Russians on both sides of the railroad and north of the Yental mines. A fierce fight raged all day long and by night, the greater portion of the position occupied by the Japanese in Khona pass had fallen into the hands of the Russians, who, however, at 5 in the evening, had not yet succeeded in capturing a wooded hill constituting the key to the position.

"Throughout October 11, the Russians maintained the offensive along the entire front against the Japanese advanced positions, except at some points where they were obliged to retire to their main positions."

JAPANESE SAID TO HAVE BEST OF BATTLE.

General Oku Has Captured Thirty Russian Guns—Czar's Officers Worried.

TOKIO, October 13, 1:30 p. m.—An extended report received from the headquarters of the Manchurian army, a brief summary of which is published this afternoon, indicates that the Japanese were generally successful in the fighting of yesterday and that all three Japanese armies gained decided advantages.

The Japanese captured a total of ten guns.

The Japanese operations to isolate and surround the Russians at Benshu are progressing favorably.

The numbers engaged in the struggle exceed the forces that fought at Liao Yang.

In some places the fighting surpasses in desperation anything shown since the war began.

The losses are not indicated but they unquestionably are heavy.

A telegram covering yesterday's operations, which arrived here today, says:

"In the direction of Benshu the enemy's attacks have been repulsed at all points.

"Communication with Chiaotao has been firmly established.

"The pursuit of the enemy, undertaken by the main force of the right and center armies, has progressed remarkably."

"A line from Maerhshan to Manchuafan has been reached. There a body of the enemy, possessing guns, was enveloped by us and thrown into great confusion, while another portion of the enemy's forces appears to have fled northward, also in great confusion.

"The right army has sent a detachment toward Shihchiaotsu for the purpose of cutting off the retreat of the enemy posted at Benshu, and this detachment will reach its destination about three o'clock this afternoon.

"The center army captured two guns and eight ammunition wagons at Sankwashishan this morning.

"According to statements made by prisoners, General Kuropatkin, with three divisions, was in the rear of the force confronting our right army. The center and left columns of this army, after driving a strong force of the enemy before them, took the Russian positions at Langtouchieh and its vicinity at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon and captured eight guns. The enemy fled in a disorderly manner in the north, and our force, pursuing him, immediately advanced toward Linhanchiatzu.

"The right column, after encountering fierce resistance, successfully dislodged the enemy, who was holding positions north of Yendonullu. The enemy retired in confusion.

"Our force was engaged in pursuing the enemy toward Lungwangmiao, south of Wulichiah, at 1:30 this afternoon.

PARKER CALLS ON MANAGERS

Pays First Visit to Headquarters of National Committee.

NEW YORK, October 13.—Judge Parker today made his first visit to the headquarters of the Democratic National Committee. He surprised his political managers, who had received no intimation of his intention to visit them. Judge Parker had left his apartments at the hotel with the purpose of taking a little morning recreation and, finding himself near the headquarters, he decided to make an inspection of the rooms.

He found all of the managers at their desks except William F. Sheehan, chairman of the executive committee.

Judge Parker passed through all the rooms and spent some time conversing with Colonel John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms, and National Chairman Taggart. He spent nearly half an hour with Mr. Taggart. Mr. Sheehan came in just as Judge Parker was leaving the headquarters. The campaign managers held a conference immediately after Judge Parker's departure. When Judge Parker returned to the hotel he found several persons waiting for him. The conferences of the day will be hurried in order to permit him to start for Esopus at 4 o'clock.

The conference held by members of the executive committee after Judge Parker had left was for the purpose of considering campaign matters. Chairman Taggart said that it was one of the meetings frequently held by the members of the executive committee for the purpose of discussing conditions and reports.

During his visit to the headquarters Judge Parker pleasantly said:

"I scarcely expected to see everybody hard at work so early in the morning. It looks good and is very encouraging."

"Oh," said Chairman Taggart, "you can always find us hard at work, Judge. We are all interested in doing everything possible to secure your election."

Some time later, when asked if there was any news today, Chairman Taggart replied:

"We have had a visit from the next President, which is about the most interesting event I know about."

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—The Archbishop of Canterbury left here today on a special train for New York on his return home. He will leave New York for England on the Cedric tomorrow.

CANTEEN A MORAL BENEFIT.

Brigadier-General Burton Makes a Report on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, October 13.—That the canteen is of great moral benefit to the army is the claim made by Brigadier General O. H. Burton, in his annual report as inspector-general of the army, to the Secretary of War, made public today.

"It seems to be almost the unanimous sentiment of the army," he says, "that the one thing lacking to meet the soldier's wants and tastes is the canteen feature. The absence of this leads to sickness, the commission of military offenses, desertion and other crimes, as well as impaired discipline, by driving men to resort to the low dives and groggeries that have sprung up like mushrooms around military reservations since the prohibition law was enacted."

In criticising recent instructions from the War Department, fixing the tour of duty in the Philippines of staff officers at three years, General Burton quotes the inspector-general of that division as saying that "few men in their third year of continuous service in the islands are in their normal condition of physical and mental vigor. It is further believed that a third year of continuous service will result in so great an increase in the number of officers invalided home or who return to the States broken in health, requiring months of leave and rest for recuperation, that no economy to the government will result."

In general, he finds the conditions of the several departments and institutions of the army good and well-administered.

BRYAN TALKS IN INDIANA

INDIANAPOLIS, October 13.—William J. Bryan's special train, bearing a number of the Indiana Democratic leaders, including several candidates on the State ticket, left here today for the second day's speech-making in Indiana. The schedule included speeches at Noblesville, Tipton, Peru, Kokomo, Huntington and a night meeting at Fort Wayne. In his speeches at Noblesville and Tipton, Mr. Bryan followed the lines of his Rockville and Indianapolis speeches yesterday. He was received by large crowds.

REV. CHARLES B. BROWN ON THE NEW PACIFIC.

REV CHARLES B BROWN

GRINNELL Ia October 3—At the session of the American Board here today Rev Charles B Brown pastor of the first Congregational Church of Oakland Cal delivered an address on The New Pacific He was listened to with marked interest Dr Brown spoke as follows

In the face of all that is occurring to the west of us those who dwell yonder by the world's widest sea feel that they have come to a great hour of the day It is sunrise everywhere All the tasks of the station to our nineteenth century men of the Pacific coast feel fresh and strong for the undertakings Business men and statesmen educators and the prophets of religion are all talking in six figures We look out through the Golden Gate and see two thirds of the whole human race dwelling in lands whose shores are washed by the waters of the Pacific We see more than half the world's consumers within easy reach by the cheaper mode of water transportation

HISTORY BEING MADE

We also see history being made while we wait When one generation of Japanese comes upon the scene Japan is a semi-barbaric country dwelling with closed ports in Oriental isolation When the next generation of Japanese reaches its majority Japan is developed into a fully organized nation with representative government and a free press with a cultivated womanhood and religious toleration as notes of its new life Other significant changes have been taking place in China the Philippines in Hawaii and the islands of the sea Therefore the new Pacific—the waters the sun which heaved and tossed three fifty years ago but nothing else the same Some imaginative have been troubling the cool and time men of prestige upon the banks are tucking up their beds and beginning to walk

In view of all this arise who are interested in the progress of the kingdom of right to be looking out upon those countries with deep hearts and generous acts We ought to be willing the wine of the morning and dwelling in the uttermost parts of the sea conscious that even there the right hand of God's purpose holds us and holds also those seeming populations to whom he is to unveil himself through the Gospel of Jesus Christ

OUR INFLUENCE

The time has gone when one nation could sit apart and decide whether or not it would influence the life of another nation The steamship and the cable have made neighbors of us all We are ready there whether we like it or not photographing the leading features of our life upon theirs The only practical question now is shall we include in that stream of influence the best we have or leave it out Shall we send the Christian gospel and teacher the greatest as the highest exponents of American life or shall we leave those forces out of the impress we make upon Far-Christian lands

THE CHINESE

If we should allow the generation of Chinese now growing up to get their main impression of Christians and of Christianity from European soldiers on the road to Pekin from traders in liquors and opium in the treaty ports from reckless globe trotters with large letters of credit and still larger measures of irresponsible appetite with no infusion of missionary influence to redeem that impression it would build up against us and against our Lord a wall of exclusion higher harder and thicker by a hundred fold than the wall which shuts out the Tartar hordes It would set back the cause of higher civilization and the progress of the kingdom indefinitely

China has a body the biggest most industrious most enduring body on earth And China has a mind patient subtle inventive They were using gunpowder before there were any Anglo Saxons They understood printing before there were any Germans They sailed the Yellow Sea with the mariner's compass before Columbus ever turned his face west hoping to reach the Coast of India by crossing Atlantic The range of Chinese intelligence is narrower than our own but within that range China has a mind forceful and acute

CHINA'S SOUL

The question is shall China have a soul dwelling within that huge body and directing the activities of that persistent mind Those who know China best and love her most know how fearfully lacking she is in a moral and spiritual life She is honeycombed with secret societies which are runways for thieves and highbinders Her official life is rotted with hypocrisy which keeps its face and steals with both hands Her womanhood in so far as it is socially influential toddles and crawls the cramped foot being the outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual deformity Her moral need is sore And if history has taught us anything it has taught us that the surest source of health reliable and growing moral life is to be found in the Gospel of the Son of God

JEFFRIES WILL PLAY THIS EVENING

James J Jeffries and his own company are well suited in the late Frank Mayo's frontier idyl Davy Crockett will be seen at the Macdonough Theater tonight The world's champion has been favorably received where ever he has appeared on his present tour and it is admitted he is making a success of portraying the role of Davy Crockett just as Charles Frohman the New York showman predicted he would do if he made a study of the part One thing about Jeffries is his naturalness which is required in the Davy Crockett role and he is addicted to an outdoor existence to hunting and the sports which make a man self reliant and at the same time natural and sincere in his character Jeffries has a good company with him and his production is well staged

"THE CONVICT'S DAUGHTER"

The new melodrama entitled The Convict's Daughter which has met with success everywhere will be produced at the Macdonough Theater for three night and two matinees starting tomorrow night Reduced prices will prevail

"THE TENDERFOOT."

The Tenderfoot will be seen at the Macdonough Theater next Monday and Tuesday nights fresh from its successful run at the New York Theater The now famous Texas comic opera has had a solid career of more than a year the piece having been in continuous service since April 12th 1903 The principal claim for The Tenderfoot is the novelty of its theme and background

HOW WATER QUESTION CAN BE SETTLED.

Dr. A. Shirk Says the City Should Treat With the Contra Costa Company.

EDITOR TRIBUNE With regard to the water question concerning the city of Oakland there is only one solution that will hold water in business sense and in every other manner in which the proposition can be attacked

In the position taken by the writer on the question of a water supply for the city of Oakland it will suffice to say briefly and positively that there is at present as well as first last and all the time the absolute fact that the people cannot do without water and the Contra Costa Water Company is able to supply them Now this same company is charged with a great many wrongs and impositions on the Oakland public and the city has been at war with the company with only short intervals of peace for years at a cost to the taxpayers of much money wasted in legal proceedings and yet no result Now then the Contra Costa Water Company offers to sell to the city of Oakland its franchise plant and everything appertaining to its property for a stated price Let this price be what it will it becomes the unquestioned right and duty of the City Council to trade with the water company on the best most favorable and amicable terms that can under any circumstances, be reached

It would make an article on this subject advocating the advantages of this measure of interminable length and the disadvantages and inconvenience of creating a new supply ab initio cannot be enumerated on 1000 pages Every voter has a right to cast his ballot in line with his personal interest Some will forever oppose schemes that bring them no particular good and much annoyance and inconvenience (Who can guess when all the people will agree) To the grafter we are old and free to say there will be no fewer chances to pay his political debts in a fair and respectable way when the city owns a water supply thus procured than would follow on the introduction of a new plant The peace and harmony that would possess the citizens of Oakland with the water question settled can only be imagined and the people will afterwards be ready to proceed with every other necessary city improvement Any future development for a better quality and larger supply of water can be economically accepted But, at all hazards let us be done with an ever continued friction on the water question Let our City Council come to terms with the present water supply company on a fair and reasonable basis, and a large majority of the people will cheerfully endorse the measure Very respectfully,

TRIED TO SUICIDE.

Failed in Attempt and Now Sues For a Divorce.

Driven to attempt suicide, in which she failed, by the alleged cruelty of her husband, Gertrude M. Tesche today began divorce proceedings against Arthur W. Tesche of Alameda, a baggage man in the employ of the Southern Pacific Railway. A few months ago, after she had been worried nearly to death, the plaintiff states that she drank an ounce-bottle of carbolic acid, but that she was found by neighbors, and awoke to find herself in a doctor's care and afterwards recovered. When her husband found her, she says his words to her were

"You did this act in order to gain sympathy and pity, but it will win you none of mine."

Mrs. Tesche says that she was a widow up to February 21 of this year, when she finally consented to again enter into the married state. She says she has a son 8 years of age and that Tesche promised her that if she married him that she could keep her boy with her. Tesche was a widower and has two girls and the mother says that soon after their marriage her husband refused to allow the boy to come to the house as he said he had not been well raised. She says she has been unable to see the child which has an income sufficient to pay for its keep and that she was made to do the housework when she was ill, treated with disrespect by her step-daughters, and made so miserable through ill-health that she finally tried to take her life.

She says if she is compelled to live with Tesche it will either drive her crazy or to suicide. She says she has been made by him to drink whisky and a doctor has prescribed morphine for her, all of which has made her very nervous. She says that he has been cruel to her in his talk and taken the part of his children against her when she has had cause to scold them.

She says that she has no means of her own and asks for $150 for counsel fees, a division of the community property which she says amounts to $600, and $25 a month alimony.

The capital stock of the company is $75,000 of which $65,000 has been subscribed.

FEARED MURDER

Mrs. Sheahan Tells of Trouble in Her Home.

The hearing of the Sheahan divorce case was begun before Judge Melvin this morning with fireworks. Mabel C. Sheahan, the plaintiff in the action, is a young woman with Spiritualistic tendencies and somewhat determined manner. She was reprimanded by the court and threatened with punishment for contempt of court before she had been in the witness chair man minutes. Her husband and defendant in the action is John J. Sheahan, an insurance adjuster in San Francisco, who, she says, earns a salary of $250 a month.

The pair have been living at 4400 Linder street and for some years past have been living a cat and dog life. On the witness stand this morning Mrs. Sheahan said that her husband had threatened her life in October, 1903, and told her that if he found her in the house when he came back at night he would kill her. She was there when he came back and he came into her room and tore the clothes off herself and little daughter and chased them out of the house. She was partially dressed, while he was attired in nothing but his night robe.

Mrs. Sheahan had not proceeded far with her testimony before she began to relate things interspersed with her conclusions and the hearing then became a mass of objections from opposing counsel and reprimands from the Judge. The witness was asked when the cruelties of her husband began, and she answered: "I might almost say from the day of our marriage. It was a slap or a knock any time I did something that displeased him. It was a wonder that he did not murder me."

The objection to her final declaration was sustained by Judge Melvin and she was told to simply relate what actually occurred. In answer to this she said:

"I am doing it the best I know how. I have told you that he slapped me and threatened to kill me and I believe he meant it."

"Madam, we don't care what you think," said Judge Melvin. "Tell what he said or did we will do our own thinking."

"I cannot do it any differently than I am. If I say anything it is objected to because it is a conclusion. I don't know what you want."

As an answer to his wife's complaint Sheahan has filed a cross-complaint, in which he alleges that she has made life a miserable desert for him. She had her Spiritualistic rigging in his home with wires and attachment and curtains. She kept company with believers in all sorts of evil beings and stayed out nights while attending meetings. He says that she had an ugly temper and wasted the hot water for his bath so that he could not have one and developed a capacity for meanness that was a revelation to him.

The hearing of the case is still in progress.

WEARY OF LIFE.

Prisoner Hangs Himself in Sacramento Prison.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 13.—Roland Holmes, who is confined in the County Jail awaiting trial for the murder of William Harbinson, whom he shot several months ago, made a determined attempt last night to commit suicide. He was only prevented by the fact that the noise he made in his dying struggle aroused the other inmates of the jail, who gave an alarm that brought the night jailor to the rescue.

Holmes cut his blanket into strips and made a ripe, which he fastened around his neck. He then threw the end of the rope through a ventilator, stood on a bucket, fastened the rope securely to the bars of the door and kicked the bucket away.

When cut down by Night Jailor Haggerty he attacked that official. Haggerty finally got the straitjacket on Holmes and the physician who had been summoned said that Holmes was without doubt a raving maniac. He will probably be sent to an asylum.

ALLIANCE APPEALS TO PEOPLE.

ENERGETIC CANVASS WHICH SECURES INCREASED MEMBERSHIP.

The following self-explanatory letter has been sent, in the name of the Republican Alliance, to leading Republicans in this city and vicinity:

"Oakland, Cal., October 12, 1904.

"Dear Sir: The Republican Alliance of Alameda county will take an active part in the present campaign in an effort to roll up a terrific majority for the Republican ticket in Alameda county and the State.

"We propose having at least 100 men in uniform and will make three trips outside of the county—San Jose, Sacramento and Santa Rosa. Will you join us?

"The Alliance has for years been known as the crack marching club of the State—let us not go backward.

"Dues for the season have been fixed at $3. This will cover all expenses except the uniform.

"I enclose an application for membership which I hope you will sign and mail to Dr. H. P. Travers, secretary, Macdonough Building, Oakland. Very truly yours,

"H. P. TRAVERS, Secretary."

In response to the personal appeals already made by members of the Alliance to their friends a number of applications for membership in that organization have already been received.

The circular which appears in the foregoing will also occasion a number of responses.

It is expected that the Alliance will during this campaign have a larger membership than it has thus far possessed in any of its successful campaigns.

RELATIVES TAKE CASE TO COURT

E. G. Cano, of 1008 Fourteenth street was arrested today on the charge of battery preferred by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Conness. Cano's arrest is due to the fact that he had his sister-in-law put in jail for disturbing the peace at 11 o'clock at night. She had to remain in jail until the next morning. At that time she said that she would swear out a warrant charging Cano with battery. Cano's wife says that he has not contributed anything towards her support for a long time, and that she locked him out of the house. Cano believes that his sister-in-law is at the bottom of the trouble.

COULD NOT AGREE

The jury in the case of Belle Vega charged with assault with intent to commit murder on Eva Perry at Livermore, disagreed at a late hour last night and was discharged by Judge Hall upon their statement that it was impossible for them to arrive at a verdict in the case.

The two women fought over a lover and the Vega woman slashed and cut her rival and left her for dead. The trial of the case was begun yesterday morning and about 4 o'clock the jury took the matter under deliberation but after being out five hours stated that there was no possibility of an agreement.

HOW PERKINS CHECKMATED A BARD MOVE.

He Smoothly Sidetracks a Scheme to Have Him Endorse His Colleague's Candidacy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—Some amused gossip has been provoked among politicians by the outcome of an artful attempt to get Senator Perkins to commit himself to a statement favorable to the candidacy of Senator Bard.

Senator Perkins always speaks in kind and complimentary terms of his colleague, but he fights shy of saying anything that can be construed as an endorsement of the Hueneme's ambition to succeed himself. This is not strange to those who remember the treatment the senior Senator received, when a candidate for re-election, at the hands of Bard and his select coterie of adherents.

The Bard men have long wanted to get Senator Perkins to say something they could use for campaign purposes, and they adroitly led up to the proposition at a dinner given by Jarrett T. Richards to Senator Bard, at the Pacific Union Club, last Monday night, only to get beautifully kissed off, as the saying goes. Speeches were made by United States Senator George C. Perkins former United States Senator Charles N. Felton, Fred S. Stratton, Collector of Customs; Dr. Chester Rowell, Regent of the University and State Senator Thomas B. Bishop, an eminent attorney, and T. B. McFarland, Associate Justice of the State Supreme Court.

Senator Perkins beamed pleasantly while throwing large bunches of bouquets at his colleague, whose character and worth he highly complimented.

Dr. Rowell was so impressed with Perkins' estimate of Bard's worth to California in the Senate of the United States that he was impelled to request the senior Senator to take the public into his confidence, but was neatly side-tracked in the way that has made Senator Perkins famous. He just pocketed Dr. Rowell's pointed suggestion: "Senator Perkins, you ought to talk that way to the public." Perhaps the suggestion reminded the Senator of the kind of talking Bard did for him, and the walkout of Bard men from the caucus which re-nominated the senior Senator.

But the effort to commit Perkins to the Bard aspiration did not end here.

The sequel is told in this paragraph printed in the "Call":

"Senator Perkins was kindly solicited yesterday to give The Call a summary of his remarks, but he was not inclined to attach much importance to his talk at the luncheon. When asked if he had definitely declared himself in favor of Senator Bard's re-election he authorized The Call to quote him as saying that his colleague was a high minded, honorable man of character and strength, whose services to California in the Senate were of great value. The Senator remarked that he could hardly be expected to declare himself in favor of Mr. Bard's candidacy when his old time friends George Knight and Frank Flint had announced themselves as candidates. 'You can quote me,' said the senior Senator, 'as saying anything and everything in commendation of Senator Bard. I could not leave my place in the Senate to visit Sacramento and engage in the contest in his behalf. I did not do that for myself, but I have offered to make speeches with him in support of the Republican ticket, and if I had to declare my first choice among the candidates for the Senate I would name Senator Bard.'"

Senator Perkins has evidently been misquoted in The Call, and his friends do not hesitate to say so, but when carefully read over it is easily to be seen that there is everything in this but the desired endorsement. That is why the politicians are laughing. It is like giving a man a sausage when he is asking for a plum. But if Senator Perkins is willing to forget and forgive the treatment he received at the hands of Bard and his satellites, a multitude of his friends are not. Bard gave no aid or comfort whatever to his colleague, and his supporters tried to block Senator Perkins' re-election by breaking up the caucus. Bard's cold silence while his henchmen were knifing Perkins told its own story. It was clearly understood on both sides of the fence at the time and Baird's latent hostility to his colleague was further illustrated by his furtive attempt to coerce Senator Perkins into giving assent to the displacement of some of his warmest friends that Baird's henchmen might be given berths. It is an open secret that Baird wanted Perkins beaten that he might go to the White House and claim to be the real thing in California. But Perkins was not defeated and Baird's supporters are now breaking their necks to get him to endorse Bard.

No wonder the politicians laugh at the fiasco Dr. Rowell made when he tried to corner so adroit, quick-willed and resourceful a veteran as Senator Perkins.

Goldberg finally secured the knife and his assailant escaped. Goldberg had about $1500 in jewelry on his person. The police are looking for a young man who lived in the same house where Goldberg roomed.

TOKIO CLAIMS KUROPATKIN IS WHIPPED.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 13 (6 10 p. m.)—Private dispatches sent the night of October 11 from the headquarters of General Silderling, whose corps occupies the Russian center, describe the bloody and desperate character of the fighting along the railroad north of Yentai station, where, on Monday, the Russians repeatedly charged the Japanese trenches at the point of the bayonet, the fight continuing into the night.

The Japanese reserved their fire until the Russians at the double, were almost upon them. An instance was given of a regiment getting within a few yards of the Japanese trenches, but recoiling before the murderous volleys of the Japanese, then coming on again with reinforcements literally under a shower of shrapnel, and finally succeeding in driving out the Japanese, but the Japanese artillery fire was so withering that the Russians were unable to remain in the trenches.

That night the Japanese artillery bombarded the Russian center, preparing the way for a general counter attack, which Field Marshal Oyama ordered for Tuesday. The Japanese offensive extended to their extreme left, General Oku's army being for the first time engaged. At nightfall Tuesday the Japanese had forced back the Russian right, but the center held fast, although a few positions had fallen into the hands of the Japanese.

The latest newspaper reports say General Rennenkampff and General Kashtalinsky encircled the Japanese right, crossed the Taitse river and came out on the Fengwang Cheng road, the Japanese retiring before them. The news from these mixed columns is three days old.

A special dispatch to a newspaper, dated late last night, says the battle continued desperately along the whole front, the most severe fighting being transferred to the eastern front.

Another newspaper dispatch received from Harbin today says the tide of battle is with the Russians. Upon the basis of this dispatch "extras," with flaming headlines, announcing a Japanese retreat along the whole line were sold by thousands.

DEMOCRATS ON THE STUMP

CAMPAIGN IN WEST VIRGINIA GETTING QUITE WARM.

LITTLETON, W. Va., October 13.—At Manningtown, the center of the West Virginia oil regions, the citizens assembled en masse to hear the Democratic orators. Mr. McGraw followed Mr. Davis, both discussing State issues.

Senator Esiley then took up the work and made his first speech in the whirlwind campaign. After discussing the effect of Republican rule on national taxation, he turned his attention to President Roosevelt. On the first topic, he concluded that the Government could do nothing for the people until the people had done something first for the Government. In paying high salaried officials their money and then having another official pay it back, he said, there was great danger of having some of it stick to the fingers of the officials.

They began by stealing stamps in Cuba, he continued, and wound up by stealing the whole postoffice department at Washington. President Roosevelt, he said, had spent more on yachts for his own private use and for making repairs at the White House than it had cost to run the whole executive department of the Government under President Jackson. He has taken down the venerable signs of revolutionary age and the emblems of war. No longer hangs the picture of the gentle lady on its wall. It has been taken down and sold for old furniture, and in its place the beaskin is hanging today. Going into the White House you have to take care or you will stumble over the lion's head, the leopard's head or the tiger's skin.

President Roosevelt, Mr Bailey continued, has denounced every President that ever preceded him up to the war time. Since that time he is afraid they may have some living friend to vote against him."

SENT TO PRISON

SAN FRANCISCO, October 13.—William O'Brien was today sentenced by Judge De Haven, in the United States District Court, to serve five years in the Folsom State Prison and to pay a fine of $100. He was brought to trial for raising United States paper money.

John D. Thompkins was also sentenced on a similar charge to serve seven years in San Quentin and to pay a fine of $100. The charge was also the raising of the face value of United States currency.

M'FEELY WILL

The will of the late Frederick P. McFeely, whose home was at 1929 Market street, was filed this afternoon with County Clerk Cook. The estate is valued at $5000 and is left to the widow of the deceased. No provision is made for the six children, which the deceased stated would be well taken care of by the mother.

WILL ASK FOR PEACE.

Pres. Roosevelt to Address Note to the Nations.

WASHINGTON, October 13.—The President is preparing to redeem his promise to the delegates to the Inter-Parliamentary Peace Conference to secure another meeting of plenipotentiaries of the powers signatory to The Hague convention with a view to revising and adding to that instrument.

The State Department will address separate notes to every government represented in the last conference, inviting suggestion as to the time and place of meeting, and without doubt in the spirit of caution that is always exhibited by diplomats, many of these governments will seek to secure an iron-clad agreement as to the scope of the conference.

Many limitations are expected to be proposed in this way and it is realized that much difficulty will be experienced in securing harmony.

NEW STEAMER LINE

SAN FRANCISCO, October 13.—The Evening Post says that the Toyo Kishin Kaisha, the Japanese steamship company which has been operating a line between here and the Orient for some years, is to parallel the Pacific Mail Company's line between here and South America.

The paper adds that the Japanese line may also compete with rivals on the Atlantic side of the isthmus.

BOY IS SHOT

Joseph Clifford, 9 years of age, while playing in the yard at his home at 162 Second street, was accidentally shot in the left ankle this afternoon by Richard Madson, a companion. The two boys were handling a 22-calibre rifle, which was accidentally discharged by Madson and the bullet took effect in Clifford's ankle. He was removed to the Receiving Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. O. D. Hamlin.

BOSTON, October 13.—Rev. Dr. Parks, on behalf of the minority report on divorce, asked for permission to withdraw the report. The request was granted. The minority report favored the existing canon, but containing an amendment compelling clergymen to obtain a civil court record when a divorced person desires to be remarried. The members of the minority considered that the situation would be less complicated with their recommendation out of the way.

WOMEN ARRESTED.

Accused of Robbing a Miner in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 13.—Returning home with the hard-earned proceeds of a season's work in Alaska, Nels Carlson could not resist the temptation to have a good time with two women he met on the street, and he now mourns the loss of $340 in gold coin and nuggets valued at $80.

Evelyn Munson, alias Eva Munsey, is under arrest at Santa Cruz because Carlson accuses her of having stolen the money, and her conduct bears out the charge. She arrived at Santa Cruz at noon yesterday, paid for a room for a week in advance at the St. George, and had returned from an extensive shopping tour to be greeted by Chief of Police Clark, who was waiting to arrest her on a telegram from Chief Wittman.

Have Made Many Oakland Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Oakland citizens grow enthusiastic It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Oakland by Doan's Kidney Pills

C T Warren house painter paper hanger etc of 2038 Eighth street Berkeley says Like the majority of men who follow my calling I have been annoyed with my back and kidneys for years I think if the primary cause of backaches in painters is not in fumes of the ingredients they use that certainly aggravates such annoyances when they exist The painter requires a good sound back and when it aches and pains he is often in misery Other complications of the stomach existed when I went to a drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills and I scarcely expected the remedy would help my back Much to my surprise and more to my gratification after I had taken two boxes the backache ceased

FOOTBALL MEN ARE HURT.

SEVERAL OF THE BERKELEY SQUAD ARE ON HOSPITAL LIST.

BERKELEY October 13—Because of the slippery condition of the field Gelcher candidate for half back on the freshman team slipped Tuesday and hurt his leg badly so that he was unable to don a football suit last night The disability to practice signals with the team will mean much at this stage of the game Booth candidate for quarter in the varsity was injured similarly and was not on the field last night The field had dried out some and was better than the night before

The freshmen are going at it with a vim and all signs point to a big freshman victory next Saturday Never before in the history of freshman football has such an amount of work been spent on the baby team This is the first season that scrimmage practice has been given to freshmen Since his appointment as freshman coach Lee Herford has done wonderfully well with his raw material He took a lot of freshmen and has developed a first team of football players

The work of the past week has been directed toward this end Individual playing and resistance to opposition have been worked up to a sufficient efficiency and team work and speed are the goals for the final touches of this week

This year is the first season that so much finishing has been done on interference Trick plays are being worked up by the coaches and several surprises are in store for the cardinal players The speed of the line has been materially increased

SPERRY RETURNS

Sperry the big half back who has been playing with the varsity all this week is now practicing with the naughty eight team and will bolster up the team to a great extent

ABOUT THE INJURED

Twitchell is still on crutches and the chance for his recovery in time to go into the game Saturday are very small Herriot is still out of the game is unable to get weak to permit his use on the slippery field

Zacharis will play with a steel brace on his arm

Slow was not on the field last night but is practicing in the gymnasium with the team

BRITT IN THREE CLASSES.

IMAGINE WHAT J EDWARD WOULD SAY IF HE WON FROM WALCOTT.

If Jimmy Britt should follow out the suggestion made in last night's TRIBUNE relative to a match with Walcott and if he should happen to defeat that welter weight then he would be in a position to tell Young Corbett to go and get a reputation

For if Britt should lick Walcott in a battle at the welter weight limit he would be champion of three classes Jimmy you know claims that he now has the titles to the feather-weight and light weight classes

Thus if he defeated Walcott he would have the title of welter-weight champion added to his smooth brow and of course would be in a position to inform Young Corbett that before he would be allowed to regain match he would have to get out and hustle up a permit giving him a rep

With three titles following him about perhaps Britt might be able to make a living on the vaudeville circuit

SPORTING NEWS

WHY M'CHESNEY HAS LOST.

BLACKSMITH DISCOVERS REASON FOR "BIG MAC'S" MANY RECENT DEFEATS.

The secret of McChesney's numerous defeats this season is believed to have been discovered at last All along veterinary surgeons who have been treating Big Mac labored under the impression his weakness of limb was located in the ankle on the near foreleg but it remained for the sharp-eyed blacksmith who was adjusting McChesney's plates recently to make the discovery that served to astonish not only D E Smathers and Trainer Frank Taylor but the vets and stable hangers on as well

In cutting away part of the hoof the blacksmith found a cavity which was packed with a solid chunk of sand and foreign matter that was as hard as a rock There were indications of soreness that were evidently of the most painful nature When the cavity was scraped and cleaned McChesney put his foot down with evident relief That this impediment must have made the horse suffer continually appears to be true according to the statements of the vets and the trainer who declared if they had known of the bruise several months ago the son of MacDuff would probably have been as sound as a dollar now

LOUIS GHIRARDELLI, QUARTERBACK ON THE OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM.

PROMOTERS IN A HURRY.

"KID" McCOY AND "TWIN" SULLIVAN HAVE BEEN REMATCHED TOO SOON

The Los Angeles fight promoters made a mistake in rematching Kid McCoy and Twin Sullivan so soon after their last battle another fight following the last one so quickly will not do the gate receipts any good

The fight fans will say Why we saw those fellows fight a few weeks ago and what's the use of going again? Both did their best before and the mill will turn out the same way again So in our opinion the mill will not draw well

The promoters should have waited a while There are a few good men of the ring not doing anything at present and another fight should have been presented Give the fight fans a chance to forget the last battle and then a contest between McCoy and Sullivan would probably result in healthy gate receipts

READING BY CHARLES A. KEELER.

Mr Charles A Keeler, the author of several well-known volumes of prose and verse, will read his new play "Viviana of San Luis Rey," at the meeting of the Starr King Fraternity to be held this evening, October 13th, in the Fraternity's room in the Unitarian Church Before the reading a song by Moskowski will be given by Mrs Mabel Gray Lachmund who will also sing the incidental songs of the play.

TENNIS PLAYER INJURED.

BAKER FALLS ON THE HARD COURT AT UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

BERKELEY October 1 The finals of both the Junior and Freshman class tennis tournaments were played this afternoon but neither match was completed In the Junior singles Rolfe and Baker had won one set but before the third one was completed Baker fell on the court and cut his hand quite badly When the game was called each player had five games to his credit It is probable that the match will be completed tomorrow

Rolfe began the match with a rush and before Baker was able to score a game Rolfe had four to his credit Baker landed the fifth but Rolfe easily took the next Baker saved the set for a while by a net in the game but at this point put Rolfe in the set by taking a love game

In the second set Baker found two games first and then Rolfe went up matters by plugging out the next two Baker took two and the remainder of the set was a see saw affair Rolfe and then Baker taking a game but Baker got there first with a score of 6 to 3

Baker appeared to have the third set well in hand when he served at 4 to 1 Rolfe tied the score at 5 all in 11 all when the game was called on account of the accident to Baker

The Freshman Lumbard and Schmidt gave the best exhibition of tennis during the day These men played but two sets each having one with the game was called on account of darkness At the outset of the match Schmidt was picked as the probable winner and when he led at 3 1 and again at 5 2 it looked very much as though the set was his At this point Lumbard picked up and scored points for three consecutive games and had the fourth game 40 15 in his favor necessitating but one point to win the game Schmidt then up points and evened up the score but lost the next Lumbard had the same chance of winning but again Schmidt snatched the victory out of his hand the last two games he got in a hurry The second set Lumbard won 6 4

Both men played a fast snappy game of ball and make a valuable addition to the college quota of tennis players

ONE WAY TO GAIN GROUND.

YALE'S FULLBACK MAKES HEADWAY WITH ASSISTANCE OF HIS TROUSERS

Tom Shevlin Yale's fullback has sprung a new trick that has taken his team by storm

It was both successful and humorous It is the proposition of gaining ground by main strength and the seat of the big fullback's pants The ball goes back to the halfback A tackle leaps to one side as does the other half Shevlin in the meanwhile gets in front To his trousers there is fastened a white canvas strap to which the man carrying the ball clings to prevent separation from his ally and together the four make what ground they can

If this stunt doesn't buck some of the Hoyle of the game there should be a lot of streamers tacked on to the big college teams within a week or so

BRITT BEGAN IN OAKLAND.

HERE IT WAS THAT HE MADE HIS PROFESSIONAL APPEARANCE

Jimmy Britt made his debut into professional prize fighting society in the drawing room of the Reliance Athletic Club of this city

Light fans will remember that Britt started on his professional career by defeating Toby Irwin in a fifteen-round battle How many of those gathered about the ringside doped J Edward up to be a champion of two classes and with his eye directed towards a third?

Britt has gone up the ladder step by step until he is now on top with Joe Gans seeking to shove him over into the pugilistic graveyard below Irwin on the other hand has displayed no championship form and since his jaw goes out of place every time he is hit a hard blow he has taken part in no fast fights Such is fate

WHITMORE ENTERS THIRD PROTEST

W E Whitmore of 317 Twelfth street entered a third protest at the meeting of the Board of Health last night, against a carpet beating establishment adjoining his residence Mr Whitmore claims that the works keep his home full of dust and that the health of himself and family is thereby impaired The Board has twice ordered the proprietor of the place to abate the nuisance but as there is no ordinance prohibiting it the man has paid no attention It was decided last night to have an ordinance passed as soon as possible that will cover this offense.

LARGE AUDIENCE AT YE LIBERTY

Another large and enthusiastic audience was at Ye Liberty Playhouse last night Undoubtedly the individual hit of every performance is scored by Elmer Booth as Aconis the court jester His work is excellent for he is playing a thankless part and one whichever so slightly overdone would be mere farce comedy Yet he handles the difficult role with ease and intelligence which shows careful study of the part It is doubly hard for an actor who invariably plays comedy roles to convince the audience familiar with his work that he is not a buffon in such a part as the court jester Manager Frank Graham has steadily raised the standard of Ye Liberty He has made a great success of the theater

MONUMENT SOLD TO PAY TAXES

NEW YORK, October 13.—A monument erected by the late Cyrus W. Field at Tappan, N. Y., to the memory of Major Andre has been sold for the non-payment of taxes. The monument stands on Andre Hill, over the spot where the British officer was buried after he was hanged. Since the death of Mr. Field taxes on the plot of ground 100 feet square have accrued in the sum of $6.38, the plot finally was put up with other property by the Treasurer of Rockland County and as there were no bidders he bought it in. If not released within a certain time the shaft of stone will pass out of the hands of the Field family and become the permanent property of Rockland County.

Andre was hanged October 2, 1780. Forty-one years later the body was removed from Tappan and buried with honors in Westminster Abbey. In 1878 Dean Stanley visited Cyrus W. Field and the latter caused the spot to be marked "as a token of those better feelings which have united two nations."

In 1882 and again in 1885 unknown persons partially destroyed the shaft with dynamite, but it was restored and since then has remained undisturbed.

WAR MUST GO ON TO THE END.

RUSSIAN EMBASSADOR SAYS JAPAN MUST BE BEATEN IN STRUGGLE.

NEW YORK, October 13.—Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, who spent the summer months in Maine, has arrived here on his way to Washington, where he will at once reopen the legation. Discussing affairs in the Far East, the Ambassador declared the war must go on till the end.

"There can be but one outcome," he continued. "When I say an end I do not mean an end of Japan as a nation, but an end to the pretensions of Japan on the shores of the Asiatic continent. She will be beaten and must in the end accept the terms of Russia."

"Do you think the situation is changing in favor of Russia?"

"The whole world must see that by this time. I said in May last that Kuropatkin was the greatest strategist in Europe. He has thus far demonstrated his ability. The trouble with us has been that we have not had sufficient men. But that is changing.

"The Russian forces have increased in numbers and Kuropatkin is taking the offensive. There will, of course, be reverses. We may often fall short of doing what we desire promptly, but in the end all that will change. Our army will grow, our armaments will improve. The outcome will be in the end the outcome which my country desires.

"The defense of Port Arthur has been one of the wonders of modern warfare. The Japanese outnumbering us and besieging the fortress by land and sea and blockading it, and with a great advantage over us both by land and sea, have fallen many months short of their calculations.

"If there is to be a winter campaign the Russians will have the advantage in being better able to stand the climate. I should, therefore, look for such a campaign to be greatly to the benefit of the army of Russia."

The arrival of the Ambassador brought out reports that a guard of secret service agents had been provided for his protection because of threats, the exact nature of which is not known. Special protection, it is stated, has been afforded the legation for some months, and the men who were at Oyster Bay during the summer are now said to be accompanying the Ambassador back to Washington. They drove behind him to his hotel and were present later at a theatrical performance which he attended.

FIELD MARSHAL OYAMA IS SATISFIED.

Pleased With Operations and Fighting of Armies Between Taitse and Hun Rivers.

TOKIO, October 13, 9:45 a. m.—Field Marshal Oyama, reporting from the field Wednesday afternoon, expresses satisfaction at the progress of the operations and fighting between the Taitse and Hun rivers. The center and right armies made substantial gains.

While the left army was desperately struggling to envelop the Russian right, Field Marshal Oyama despatched two telegrams, the first of which said:

"The state of affairs in the direction of Mukden is as follows: On the morning of October 12 the central column of the Right army at 5 o'clock occupied Lokoulin mountain and the northern heights of Pacheatzu. The left column of the Right army occupied the northern heights of Shaotakou, and continues to pursue the enemy's central column. The Right army succeeded in occupying Maerh mountain. The Central army, beginning operations from midnight October 11, reached the heights extending from Sanchiatzu to Sankaushia mountain, on the northwest, and is presumably pursuing enemy.

"The Left army continues to attack the enemy along the Schili river and at Lungwangmiao and Wulichieh since last night, but has not yet attained its object. At present, aided with reinforcements, the left wing is trying to envelop the enemy's right flank by means of a rear engagement in the direction of Penhsuhu and the fighting continues.

"Judging from the above state of affairs the operations in those directions are proceeding favorably toward the attainment of our first object."

The second message is as follows:

"In an engagement at midnight on October 11, we captured two field guns and eight ammunition wagons. Major-General Murui was wounded and one colonel was killed."

HARRIMAN INTEREST HAVE RETIRED

CHICAGO, October 13.—Four of the protesting stockholders of the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company who recently organized a protective committee, have been elected directors at the annual meeting. The Harriman-Hawley interests, which have had control, retired. It is said they have sold out nearly all of their stock in the company.

The new directors elected were Chas. L. Raymond, Chicago; William H. Heaton, New York; Albert E. Goodhart, New York; Arthur O. Slaughter, Chicago. They take the places of H. R. Hawley, Charles W. Goulc and Henry A. Rust, whose terms of office expired, and Otto G. Barnard, resigned.

RUSSIAN TAKE BENSIHU

ST. PETERSBURG, October 13.—A dispatch from a correspondent of the Associated Press, dated Mukden, October 12, morning, says:

"The fight opened to-day before sunrise, when the sound of guns was heard from the southward. I am leaving now for the front. The Russian troops on Tuesday occupied Yental station, but the Japanese continue to hold the Yental mines, though a furious fight had been in progress there all day long. The Russians also captured Bensihu after severe fighting and thus found themselves in an important position on the Japanese flank.

"There are many contradictory reports of the general results of Tuesday's engagement afloat in Mukden, and it is hard to arrive at an actual conclusion. It is not even known, on the whole, whether the Japanese or the Russians are gaining the most ground."

A LARGE ESTATE DISPOSED OF

CHICAGO, October 13.—The will of the late J. McGregor Adams, just filed for probate, disposes of an estate supposed to be worth $1,000,000, though the value is stated at only $300,000. Nearly all of the property goes to members of the family.

To the widow, Edith Adams, is given $200,000 in lieu of a dower, as well as the furnishings of the residences at Highland Park and Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

After bequests amounting to $30,000 are paid, the residue of the estate is to go in equal shares to the three stepchildren—Susan Bruwaert of New York, Rockwell King and Jane King Burry of Chicago, and to two nieces, Marion and Julia McGregor Dwight.

THE CHILDREN ENJOY

Life out of doors and out of the games which they play and the enjoyment which they receive and the efforts which they make, comes the greater part of the healthful development which is so essential to their happiness when grown. When a laxative is needed the remedy which is given to them to cleanse and sweeten and strengthen the internal organs on which it acts, should be such as physicians would sanction, because its component parts are known to be wholesome and the remedy itself free from every objectionable quality. The one remedy which physicians and parents, well-informed, approve and recommend and which the little ones enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects, is—Syrup of Figs—and for the same reason it is the only laxative which should be used by fathers and mothers.

Syrup of Figs is the only remedy which acts gently, pleasantly and naturally without griping, irritating, or nauseating and which cleanses the system effectually, without producing that constipated habit which results from the use of the old-time cathartics and modern imitations, and against which the children should be so carefully guarded. If you would have them grow to manhood and womanhood, strong, healthy and happy, do not give them medicines, when medicines are not needed, and when nature needs assistance in the way of a laxative, give them only the simple, pleasant and gentle—Syrup of Figs.

Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic syrups and juices, but also to our original method of manufacture and as you value the health of the little ones, do not accept any of the substitutes which unscrupulous dealers sometimes offer to increase their profits. The genuine article may be bought anywhere of all reliable druggists at fifty cents per bottle. Please to remember, the full name of the Company—CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.—is printed on the front of every package. In order to get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine only.

JUDGMENT IN FAVOR OF THE CREMATORY.

Judge Ellsworth Declares That the Charges Made Are Not True.

The effort to stop the operation of the garbage crematory at Twenty-second and Wood streets fell flat yesterday, when, after a trial which lasted more than a week, Judge Ellsworth expressed it as his opinion, from the evidence given before him, that most of the charges made against the plant were the result of overwrought imaginations. He refused to grant the injunction sought for and gave judgment for the city of Oakland and the Pacific Incinerating Company, both of whom were made defendants in the case.

It is stated by the attorneys in the case that there is but one more point that can be attacked by those opposing the establishment of a garbage crematory, and that is relative to the contract between the city of Oakland and the Pacific Incinerating Company, and that when this is decided a final end will have been put to the efforts of those who would do away with the plant.

So far as the works being a nuisance is concerned, Judge Ellsworth, in a lengthy oral opinion rendered late last evening at the termination of the trial, gave the crematory a clean bill of health, stating that from the way in which the plant is constructed it is impossible for the conditions to prevail that have been charged against it, and in this connection said:

"After listening for many days to the testimony of those in favor of and against the crematory, I am of the belief that much of the evidence given here against the crematory has been a misstatement of facts, whether intentional or not I am not prepared to say. The more charitable way in which to view it is that the persons have been insensibly influenced against it.

"There were two women who gave testimony against the plant who stated that they had noticed odors altogether different from any that were there before the crematory. I myself was somewhat incredulous as to how the variety of smells that arise in that section of the city could be distinguished from one another, and I listened attentively to what they had to say, until both swore positively that they had noticed these particular smells stronger than usual a week ago last Sunday. It was proven positively in rebuttal that the crematory was not in operation upon that day.

"I have no doubt that there are smells in the district. It has been shown that the main lake sewer runs down there and is broken in many places and gives off offensive odors. The former dumping ground for all the filth of the city is also located there. The home of the plaintiff in this action is built upon an old dump, as is also the crematory now sought to be enjoined. There are smells arising from all of the sources, to say nothing of the bad air from the surrounding marsh land. But these cannot in any way be attributed to the presence of the crematory.

"The fact is that the crematory is so constructed that it is almost impossible for any smells to arise from it. The furnace consumes the garbage and all of the smoke and heat arising from its destruction passes through a chamber heated to 3000 degrees Fahrenheit. This deadens and kills absolutely anything that could give off an odor. There is even no smoke to be detected from the burning. What smoke is seen coming from the chimney is from wood used in starting the fires in the morning.

"From all the testimony introduced here, I am of the opinion that the charges have not been proven and that it is impossible for the conditions to exist that it is asserted exist on account of the crematory, and I shall deny the injunction and find a judgment for the defendants with costs."

Church and Goodfellow were attorneys for the crematory.

KILLED BY THE TRAIN.

Section Hand Miscalculated Distance and Was Struck.

George Dedacks, a section hand, employed by the Southern Pacific Company, was instantly killed at Shell Mound this morning by the Berkeley Flyer, under the control of Engineer Clark and Conductor Morris.

The deceased stood too close to the track and was struck by the side of the engine. He appeared to be aware that the train was approaching, but miscalculated the distance.

He was married, but his wife is still in Greece, his native country. He resided at 867 Cedar street.

The remains have been taken to the morgue, where an inquest will be held by Coroner Mehrmann.

TO STAY IN JAIL.

Convicted Official Must Serve His Full Term.

HONOLULU, October 7, via San Francisco, October 13.—The Supreme Court has handed down a decision, denying the appeal of B. H. Wright, convicted of embezzlement of public funds in February, 1903. Wright's trial was the first growing out of a number of Public Works Department embezzlements.

He was sentenced to three years hard labor by Judge De Bolt.

DEATH STRUGGLE FOR THE MASTERY.

Troops Battle All Day and at Night Fall the Result Was a Draw.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 13, 1:53 p. m.—The Russian and Japanese armies resting below Mukden seem now to be definitely locked in a death struggle for mastery.

Field Marshal Oyama is countering General Kuropatkin's thrust at the Japanese right by an advance against the Russian right. The situation on a much larger scale resembles that of Vafingow, where General Stalkenberg, in essaying to turn the Japanese right had his own right turned.

JAPANESE ATTACK.

The Japanese assumed the offensive against the Russian right, forcing the latter to give ground. But along the center, stretching from Yental station eastward, where General Nodzu also attempted a desperate counter attack, and where fighting was the hottest, the Russians held their own.

The result at nightfall was a draw. This is the latest word received by the War Office from Kuropatkin, but according to the dispatch of the Associated Press from Mukden, the Japanese resumed the offensive again this morning.

INFORMATION LACKING.

No word has come regarding the operations of the Russian turning movement on Oyama's right, on which the success of Kuropatkin's plan of battle seems to depend, the War Office explaining that reports from this point had not reached Kuropatkin when he sent his dispatch and consequently information is lacking of operations at the very point where all eyes center and where the heavy blow was evidently aimed.

The strength of the force with which Kuropatkin has undertaken this turning movement has not yet developed. The mixed column which crossed the Taitse river Sunday is now believed to be General Remenkampff's force, probably joined to mixed columns under either Generals Kashtalinsky or Mischentenko. The infantry and artillery engaged in desperate fighting in the neighborhood of the Neishu fords, the Japanese having fortified a short line from Bensihu to Liudiudia to protect their right flank. These columns evidently marched down from Fushun, separated at Bensiaputze, a portion taking the direct Bensihu road and the others the road to Ultzy and Koutiatsze, which crosses the river at Siantziatzi, fifteen miles above.

WAR OFFICE RETICENT.

The War Office is reticent regarding the movements of the flying column on the extreme Russian left which was striking at the lines of the Japanese communications at the Yalu, but it is reported to have been checked at Dziantchan, equivalent to the Japanese Hsinechwang (otherwise Sian Chan).

The Japanese narrow gauge railroad from Fengwang Cheng to Saimatze connects with the roads and depots at Dziantchan and Siaodyr.

Altogether the news this morning is not completely reassuring. The Novoe Vremya voices the prevailing sentiment, saying:

"Kuropatkin is a cautious leader and it is taken for granted that he weighed well the risks before undertaking the wide turning movement. We probably shall have to wait long and weary hours before knowing the results of the all-important battle now begun."

AGITATION OF "OPEN SHOP."

RESTAURANT KEEPERS MAY DECIDE TO POST NOTICES.

There seems at the present time to be a strong current in favor of the "open shop" among the restaurant keepers of this city.

Two weeks ago the Restaurant Keepers' Association decided to abide by the decision of the Citizens' Alliance in the matter of pasting the "open shop" card in their places of business.

The members of the association are not taking the initiative but are holding back waiting for some one else to make the start. It is probable that the Citizens' Alliance will put up the notices in the various restaurants of its own accord shortly.

The officers of the Cooks and Waiters' Union are reticent with regard to the matter.

The union has an agreement with the Restaurant Keepers' Association, which runs until next June, and which provides that only union men shall be employed.

BOOT AND SHOE WORKERS.

At the last meeting of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, one candidate was initiated and three applications placed on file.

New union shop cards will shortly be issued to members.

John Gregg, W. H. F. Walker and J. E. Mosley were appointed a committee to arrange for the entertainment of the international delegates from the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union to the convention of the American Federation of Labor, to be held in San Francisco shortly.

BUTCHERS' UNION.

The Butchers' Union met last night and the session was largely attended.

On Friday evening the executive board of the union will meet with the executive board of the Central Labor Council to discuss conditions and certain important matters now at issue.

"ROOT BEER" IS ALCOHOLIC.

COUNTER LINED WITH BOTTLES WHICH CONTAINED GENUINE ARTICLE.

In the police court this morning there was a mild sensation sprung when the allegation was made that certain breweries were bottling beer and selling it as root beer. Amandus Boege, who was arrested yesterday for selling liquor without a license, was before Police Judge Smith. He pleaded not guilty and had his trial set for October 26.

According to the arresting officers, Boege had an entire counter lined with beer bottles. All of these were innocently labeled "root beer." To the passerby all of the bottles were harmless. It is alleged that mine host, however, would serve the most delightful beer on a moment's notice to any one ordering it with a sandwich.

Boege disclaims all knowledge of that fact that the bottles contained the genuine article. He says the brewery sold it to him for root beer.

This state of affairs aroused Prosecuting Attorney Leach, who states he will take steps to look into the bottling of the various breweries and see if they are violating the law.

License Inspector Meek has hopes of running down other places where root beer, with a decided alcoholic taste, is being sold.

RUSSIANS ARE NOT CHEERFUL

ST. PETERSBURG, October 13 (5:15 p. m.)—The War Office up to this hour declares that no additional reports have arrived from the front.

General Sakharoff's report given out only brings the story of the battle up to the evening of October 11, when no decisive results had been obtained by either side, although he makes it plain that the Japanese had assumed the offensive and that the Russians had not been entirely successful in defending their positions.

The atmosphere at the War Office is by no means cheerful.

The failure to receive news of the Russian left wing might possibly be interpreted as tending to confirm the Tokio report that the Russians operating against the Japanese right had been enveloped.

INSURES HER LIFE FOR A BIG SUM

CHICAGO, October 13.—Mrs. Charles Netcher, owner of a down-town department store, is following in the footsteps of her late husband. When he decided to build on his property, he insured his life for $500,000, so that in the event of his death the plans might not be interefered with.

Mrs. Netcher, having taken up the burden dropped by her husband, June 20, when he died, has decided to do likewise.

Four large insurance companies in the East have agreed to issue a $500,000 policy on her life. One company will take $200,000 of the risk and the three others $100,000 each.

The companies decline to state what the yearly premium will be but it is understood the rate is higher than that paid by Mr. Netcher. He made only one yearly payment when he died.

BERKELEY, October 13.—The '08 debating committee has changed the date of the freshie try-outs from October 21 to Thursday, October 20. This action was taken owing to the fact that on Friday evening, October 21, the freshie rise will be held.

FAIRBANKS IN ILLINOIS.

IMMENSE CROWD GREETS THE SENATOR WITH CHEERS.

MOLINE, Ill., October 13.—Senator Fairbanks began the last day of his extended western campaign tour with a speech in this city today. An immense crowd greeted the Senator with a round cheer and listened intently while he spoke.

He contrasted industrial conditions in the Democratic administration.

Senator Fairbanks was met here by Hon. Charles S. Deneen, Republican candidate for Governor of Illinois, National Committeeman Frank Lowden and a large number of other prominent Illinois Republicans.

The Senator's program for the day includes speeches at Moline, Geneso, Sheffield, Spring Valley, La Salle, Ottawa, Morris and Joliet, with a night address at Chicago.

THE NATIVES ARE HAPPY.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., October 13.—The Samal and Lanao Moro village in the Philippine section at the World's Fair is the scene of great excitement, occasioned by the presence of a tailor and cobbler who are taking measurements for suits and shoes which are to be worn by the natives on their return to their native homes. The orders for suits and shoes have filled the Moro hearts with delight as it means the time when they can depart for home is nearing.

RUSSIAN SHIP NOT HELD UP.

Japanese Merchant Line Was the Cause of a Scare.

TACOMA, Wn., October 13.—Captain Enlund, master of the Russian ship Glenard, which arrived in port Tuesday night from San Francisco, reports having sighted a Japanese transport while coming up.

The captain says when he sighted the transport he expected to be overhauled and possibly taken. He was some distance away from the steamer however, and did not show his flag, and as a consequence the two vessels parted company without closer acquaintance. Captain Enlund considered he had a narrow escape from capture. The Glenard is here to load lumber for Australia.

Captain Enlund says today that he believes the ship was a regular Japanese merchant liner. Enlund did not display his Russian flag and kept away from the Japanese ship. Reports that the Glenard was overhauled are not true.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 13.—In maritime circles here it is believed that the vessel sighted by the Glenard was either the Japanese merchant steamer America or the United States transport Sheridan.

DIVORCE CASES IN SUPERIOR COURT

After having lived together as man and wife since 1877 an action for divorce on the ground of desertion was begun today by Mary E. Oulsman against Thomas H. Oulsman. In 1901, she alleges that he left her without cause. They were married in England but afterwards came to this country. She states that she has been left without means and that he is earning a salary of $100 a month, of which she asks $25 for her support, costs of the suit and attorney's fees.

DISMISS THEIR ACTION.

Well along in years, Nelli Bright and Edwin Bright, interested parties in a divorce action now pending before the courts, sought the County Clerk's office together this morning and stated that they wished to have the case dismissed. The suit was brought by Mrs. Bright, who charged her husband with intemperance and profligacy, but during the wait for the trial to come up they have forgot and forgiven, and with a written request for the dismissal of the suit they filed the document with Deputy County Clerk Rogers today and said that they had advanced too far along the road of life together to separate now.

CAMPAIGN IN WEST VIRGINIA

UNDERWOOD, W. Va., October 13.—From Fairmount to Wheeling is the battle ground today of Henry G. Davis, Democratic Vice Presidential candidate, and his corps of campaigners.

Senator Bailey of Texas joined the party today. Despite the arduous work yesterday, Mr. Davis and Messrs. Whyte, Daniel and Hill show no ill effects of travel and talk. There is but seventy-seven miles to cover today with half hour meetings at Farmington, Minningtown, Glover's Gap, Burton, Hundred, Littleton, Cameron and Moundsville. Wheeling, the scene of a night rally, will be reached late this afternoon.

WILL TRY TO RUN BLOCKADE.

German Steamer Will Try to Reach Port Arthur.

TSINGTAU, Oct. 13, (Night)—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns, on most reliable authority, that a high Russian officer who passed through here yesterday on his way to Shanghai, is making fabulous offers to shippers to take cargoes to Port Arthur and that this officer has admitted that the supplies there are alarmingly low, especially those of coal.

The German steamer Emma, which cleared from here yesterday for San Francisco with a cargo of coal, will attempt to reach Port Arthur. The foreign crew of the Emma has been replaced by Chinese. Many of the crew deserted upon learning the destination of the ship.

It is said that the Russians paid the owners of the Emma $15 per ton, besides depositing the appraised value of the vessel, with a bonus of twenty-five per cent, in bank before the cargo was loaded and that the captain, should he successfully run the blockade, is to be awarded a prize of $1,250.

A despatch from Tsingtau October 7, said that the British steamer Howick Hall was discharging a cargo of coal to the German steamer Emma and that the latter was expected to make an attempt to reach Port Arthur within a few days from the time the despatch was sent.

OPERATED IN THE WRONG PLACE

SAN FRANCISCO, October 13.—Frank Wilson, the expressman who walked out of the Central Emergency Hospital on Saturday, and who was taken back there two days later suffering from what the surgeon on duty diagnosed as a "possible fracture of the skull," died in the hospital yesterday morning. He had been operated on by Chief Surgeon Stephen, who removed a clot of blood from the man's brain but could detect no fracture. The surgeons are undecided as to whether the clot was the result of the injury the man sustained on Saturday, apoplexy or another cause.

Autopsy Surgeon Bacigalupi found that there was a severe fracture of the skull and that the hospital surgeon had trephined about two inches away from the fracture.

The statement was given out that Wilson died of delirium tremens. This is untrue as he was not a drinking man. Mr Wilson was a sober and industrious man.

CONTEST MAY BE HELD IN CANADA

NEW YORK, October 13.—Developments lead to the belief, says the Herald, that the contest next year for the Palma trophy may be held in Canada. The National Rifle Association of America probably will challenge Great Britain again on condition that the match be decided in the Dominion. In case of acceptance it is likely the match will take place on the Rockliff range at Ottawa near the Governor-General's residence. This is said to be one of the best rifle ranges in the world.

The Palma trophy, after having been won by the American team in 1903, was returned to Great Britain because of the allegation that the American team had shot with a special make of barrel. The British Rifle Association did not ask for the return of the trophy, but the National Association of this country decided that it would not keep the trophy if there were any question at all as to the genuineness of the victory.

PROFESSORS WILL ATTEND CONVENTION

BERKELEY, October 13.—The delegates from the University of California to the irrigation convention at Modesto will leave Berkeley on the evening of the 17th of this month. Professors Meade, Fortier, Wickson, Stover and Soule will probably attend this convention, which is likely to be an important one in the history of irrigation in California.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. FUPING'S CARGO WAS AMMUNITION

TOKIO, October 13, 11 o'clock—Preliminary reports indicate that the bulk of the steamer Fuping's cargo was ammunition. An inventory is expected soon. The steamer Fuping cleared from Taku and it is not known where she received her contraband. She flies the German flag.

The ascent of the ladder may be difficult, but somehow we never notice the splinters until we begin to slide down again.—Chicago News.

FALLS FROM LADDER; DISLOCATES HER ARM

BERKELEY, Oct. 13.—While trailing vines in the garden at her home, 2632 Bancroft Way this morning, Miss Sallie Daingerfield fell from a stepladder and dislocated her arm. The accident occurred through the breaking of the ladder and although the young woman reached to save herself she was precipitated a distance of ten feet to the ground.

BERKELEY, Oct. 13.—Dr. H. N. Miner has attached the wages of W. P. Williams, a janitor at the State University, for $40 alleged to be due for medical services.

The Attacks on Father Yorke.

THE TRIBUNE has followed closely the details relating to the affairs of the Yorke Street Contracting Company, now undergoing scrutiny by the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco. Thus far there has not been developed a scintilla of evidence which would honestly be any reflection on the integrity of Captain Yorke, head of the firm, or any member of it. So far as the evidence adduced discloses all work has been faithfully performed and at a fair price, and in any other city in America, nothing would be said of it. But in San Francisco, things are different. It appears that Captain Yorke is a relative of a fearless and dauntless priest who sometimes takes a hand in public affairs. This man of the cloth has shown up political humbugs and rascals in their true light and color. He has practically exterminated a gang of religious bigots who a few years ago threatened the very life and liberty of the community, and has thereby incurred cloaked enmities which never sleep and which are ever alert to strike at a man so bold, so forceful and so outspoken in defense of right and against public wrong. No one will quarrel with a fair-minded investigation regarding contracts for street work, but a so-called investigation that is only a pretext for casting unjust aspersion and which is conducted solely to wound and humiliate, over the shoulders of a brother, a distinguished clergyman who has proved himself an able and fearless champion of popular rights and civic virtue deserves the contempt and execration of all honest men.

There is not a particle of testimony to indicate that Captain Yorke did not get his contracts fairly and live up to them honestly. There is nothing to show that the city has not received one hundred cents worth of work for every dollar it has paid out, nothing whatever to indicate fraud or collusion. This of itself should dispose of the whole matter, for if the city has not been injured no wrong has been done by anybody. In any event there is nothing to connect Father Yorke with the street contracts, save that his brother, who has always borne an unblemished reputation, is the superintendent of a contracting company. This fact is made the vehicle of cowardly and malicious insinuations by persons who care nothing for the city's welfare and less for the truth, but who are not above any sort of meanness to wreak a revenge on the gallant priest whose eloquent tongue has lashed rascals and rascality in and out of office.

Those who are familiar with politics across the bay will understand the motives that prompt this vicious and covert attempt to blacken a good man's name, and it is not likely that any intelligent person will fail to see through the despicable methods pursued to that end. Certainly the San Francisco public cannot be deceived by devices so transparent and pretexts so flimsy. It is clear that Captain Yorke is being attacked because he is a brother to Rev. P. C. Yorke, and that the attack on him is merely a mask for an assault on Father Yorke. The so-called investigation has broken down of its own impotence and iniquity, and in the end the wretched crew of conspirators will be put to ignominious flight. Neither Father Yorke nor any of his name can be injured by the practices disclosed in this farcical but vindicative hearing. Nor can the work planned by the dauntless priest be stopped or curtailed. Certain it is, as night follows day, that the public will put its heel of disapproval on the necks of the powerful enemies and their underlings, and when all is done, and the entire facts made public, there may be a scattering of the accusers of Captain Yorke, and their hidden and unhidden allies, such as there is now going on with the boodle gang in the City of St. Louis, excepting that Father Yorke may be more severe in his chastisement than is the intrepid Folk.

But it is a misfortune to San Francisco that official machinery can be prostituted to such base personal ends, and that innocent and irrelevant facts can be so distorted and misrepresented to serve ignoble purposes.

Supervisor H. D. Rowe.

Of the three Supervisors to be elected next month none is more deserving of re-election than H. D. Rowe. He is a sterling citizen and merits confidence because he has earned it. Mr. Rowe has set a conspicuous example of zeal and fidelity in public office. He possesses the virtues of frankness and courage to a rare degree. Mr. Rowe is not afraid to do what he thinks is right and speak what he believes to be the truth at all times and under all circumstances. During his term as Supervisor he has labored to bring the various county institutions to a high state of efficiency. He has shown himself an enthusiast in behalf of good roads. He looks after the public interests with a watchful eye, and his business sagacity is of great public service in the County Board. His majority in November will be a magnificent endorsement of a good record.

The Alameda Encinal is guilty of a rather small bit of disingenuousness in saying the tax rate of Oakland is $2.84 while that of Alameda is $1.38. The municipal rate of Oakland is $1.26. Although there is a special levy in Oakland this year of 14 cents on account of the school bonds recently voted the total levy in this city is $2.84 against $2.85 for Alameda. A half truth, neighbor, often has the earmarks of a whole lie. If there be no intent to deceive why state partial facts in a way to convey a false impression?

Secretary Metcalf's estimate of 50,000 plurality for Roosevelt in California is a fairly safe one. It is more likely to be larger than smaller.

The present ballot law permits the citizen to vote a straight ticket by marking a single cross. This point should not be lost on Republicans. This is a year for straight voting, from President down. Don't scratch. And if you don't scratch, the best thing to do is to stamp the ballot at the top a straight one. In this county the Republicans have an admirable ticket composed of men of good character, ability and excellent records, and the wise thing to do is to vote it from top to bottom. There is no weak or objectionable material on the ticket and voters of the Republican faith have reasons beyond the ordinary for presenting a solid front in behalf of their candidates and principles.

Why Lukens Should Be Re-elected.

The last Legislature contained no more capable and industrious legislator than Senator G. Russ Lukens. He proved himself one of the most effective men ever elected from this county, and is the right sort of man to keep in the Legislature. His work as chairman of the Judiciary Committee won him the attention and good opinion of the entire State. His vigilance and mastery of detail were of invaluable service during the session. Being a strong debater and a clear thinker, he proved himself a good floor leader as well as a capable committee worker. Mr. Lukens has been renominated without opposition, and should be re-elected by an increased majority. Particularly is he needed in the Senate to look after the interests of the State University of which he is a loyal champion. His work in behalf of that institution during the last session was most effective. It was distinguished by tact, judgment and legislative skill of a high order. At the coming session of the Legislature the University will have important interests demanding attention. Therefore every friend of higher education should vote for Senator Lukens He also deserves the support of all workingmen for the part he took in passing the Employers' Liability Bill. Senator Lukens is an honor to Alameda county.

A Righteous Decision.

In denying the application for an injunction to restrain the Pacific Incinerating Company from operating its plant, Judge Ellsworth decided in accordance with the facts, but he did more; he put the seal of judicial disapproval on an attempt to use the courts for an improper purpose. Behind the suit brought ostensibly by Vince is the Scavengers' Union, the members of which are contumaciously defying the law. It is a matter of broad common knowledge that the alleged grievance of Vince had no foundation in fact, but was a mere pretense for harassing the Incinerating company in the interest of a gang of law-breakers, who have for years been fighting every attempt to institute a sanitary system of garbage disposal in Oakland. The plaintiff, whose yard reeked with filthy refuse, claimed that the health of his family was injured by unwholesome exhalations from the distant crematory. Said exhalations proved under investigation to be merely the smell from the oil burned on passing locomotives. This man claimed to have been damaged to the extent of $20,000 by a purely mythical cause. The sum and the allegation stamp the proceeding as collusive. Judge Ellsworth did right in kicking the application out of court, but the police can do better by taking more vigorous steps to stop the scavengers from violating the law. An entire community should not permit itself to be defied by a filthy gang of garbage collectors.

The Democratic meetings held in this State during the present campaign may properly be classed with the British society functions known as "small and earlies."

General Kuropatkin's forward movement is showing a disposition to go backward.

Mr. Henry C. McPike will not make any votes for himself by abusing Secretary Metcalf in this community or belittling him because of his elevation to the Cabinet. Mr. Metcalf is not an issue in this campaign, in which he is taking no active part, and disparaging personal references to him are distinctly out of place and in bad taste, particularly in his home town where he is so widely known and universally esteemed.

The Savannah News says the time has come for dealing with the mob spirit with a strong hand. It needs to be dealt with with a Gatling gun.

The Republican factions in Wisconsin are showing the Democrats what a lively political fight looks like.

Ex-Congressman Sam D. Woods says he has not bolted, but is for Roosevelt first, last and all the time. The nominations may now close and the balloting proceed.

THE BENEFITS OF PROTECTION.

The protective tariff system is by no means a mere bounty system, for, as a matter of demonstrable fact, the creation in this country of great manufacturing industries has in many cases cost government and people nothing. But the conviction of the value of manufactures to the country which impells the towns to give bounties and the commonwealth to remit taxes is in the minds of the mass of the people. Very much more than a century ago Americans learned from that wise man, Benjamin Franklin, that "every manufacture encouraged in our country makes a home market" (for farmers, miners and laborers), and that it "saves much money to the country that must otherwise be exported." The experience of a century, during which this nation, under protection, rose to a position of power and wealth and splendor of which even Franklin could not have dreamed, has justified his words. The brightest people in the world, he only truly self-governing people, the people who, above all others, are best capable of perceiving their own interests and of taking care of themselves, have not been cajoled and buncoed all these years by juggling manufacturers. They have voted to maintain protection and they will vote again, because they believe it is for the advantage of the entire nation. —Philadelphia North American.

FRATERNAL NEWS FROM LOCAL LODGES.

Many Events Planned to Attract New Members—Socials and Dances.

LADIES OF THE MACCABEES.

The ladies of Oakland Hive No. 14 will give a whist tournament at their lodge rooms in the Maccabee Temple tomorrow evening. This tournament is given for the benefit of a needy member and the committee is planning for a large gathering.

The prizes, which number about twenty-five, are on display in the windows of the Heeseman Clothing Company, on Washington street and consist of hand-painted china, cut glass, burnt leather goods, two umbrellas, and other useful and valuable articles.

Invitations are out, and can be secured from members of the hive or tent, for the tenth annual ball of Oakland Hive No. 14 and Oakland Tent No. 17, to be held at Reed Hall on the 26th instant.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

In the presence of quite a large number of the Pythian fraternity at its session of Thursday, October 6, Oakland Lodge No. 13, K. of P. conferred the Page rank on strangers Fischer and Morrison. When the business of the evening was concluded all present were invited to the banquet hall, where a collation awaited them, prepared under the supervision of Oakland's well known caterer, Brother J. H. Moon. The good of the order was discussed with the various other good things. The chairman of the function, Brother Bunning, called upon the following, who cheerfully responded to the several toasts: "The Order Universal," P. C. Shoovan of Minnesota; "The Uniform Rank," Brother E. Bernsteyn of 103; "The Endowment Rank," P. C. Joseph Gilman of Kickapoo, Kern county; "Oakland Lodge 103," Benjamin Demosthenes Gans of 103; "The Order in the Hawaiian Islands," Past Chancellor J. Murphy, formerly of Honolulu; "The Ladies, Rathbone Sisters especially," Willard Ellison of Milpitas. A humorous recitation, rendered by Brother Jessie Fine, entitled "How to Scrape an Acquaintance," was well received. At the castle of this lodge this evening a district meeting will be held of the following districts: No. 9, comprising lodges Nos. 17, 103, 172 and 224; No. 11, comprising lodges Nos. 15 and 141.

Several grand officers are expected to be present, and in conjunction with Supreme Representative Judge George Samuels, will address the assemblage. Special music for the occasion has been arranged by Professor Charles Moon. Rank work has been postponed until the next meeting.

MACCABEES.

Oakland Tent No. 17 and Oakland Hive No. 14, Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees, have completed the arrangements for their tenth annual ball, to be given at Reed Hall on the evening of October 26th. Fifteen hundred invitations are being distributed among the members and their friends. Members desiring invitations for their friends can get them at 479 Ninth street or at 550 Jones street.

The Record Keepers' Convention at Maccabee Temple, this city, Monday, October 24, will be well attended, the majority of the record-keepers from Bakersfield to Oregon having notified Great Commander Hall that they will be here. Oakland Tent will give an entertainment and banquet in their honor at the temple on the evening of the same date, which will be attended by members of the different tents in Alameda county.

MASONS.

Brooklyn Lodge No. 225, F. and A. M., at East Oakland, will confer the third degree Tuesday evening, October 18.

RATHBONE SISTERS.

The officers of Calanthe Temple No. 6, Rathbone Sisters, did the initiatory work in their usual creditable manner last Friday evening. Much praise is due Captain Charles Hood and the bevy of pretty young ladies that compose the degree team for the efficient manner in which they did their work. Tomorrow evening the whist tournament will take place at Woodmen Hall, 531 Twelfth street. The prizes to be given will exceed anything Calanthe has tendered in the past.

LOYAL TEMPLE NO. 47.

The activities of the members of Loyal Temple No. 47, Rathbone Sisters, was marked, the seating capacities were taxed, the sisters and brothers were out in full force mainly for the reason to welcome home from the supreme conclave their beloved sister, P. G. C. Lillian Samuels, and her benevolent husband, Supreme Representative Hon. Judge Samuels.

A sister candidate was initiated into the ranks of this sisterhood, the initiatory ceremonials being given with great credit by the officers of this temple, M. E. C. Sister Muehlenbruch presiding. The degree team, headed by Sisters Journal and Thompson, did the work in a splendid manner, and some day will stand ready for a competitive prize for efficient team work. New applications were read and committees appointed. After much work had been disposed of the temple closed in due form.

As a surprise to P. G. C. Lillian Sauels and Hon. Judge Samuels, Sister Ray Schwarzbaum being chairman of the banquet committee, asked all members to fall in line for a grand march. Hon. Judge Samuels with Mrs. L. Samuels M. E. C., led, followed by P. G. C. Sister Adia Merguire with escort; then M. E. C. Sister Muehlenbruch and escort; thence all officers and past chiefs and finally the sisters with escorts.

Sister Schwarzbaum acted as master of ceremonies, and in a neat speech full of meaning gave welcome to the guests of honor, Sister and Brother Samuels, whereupon all were seated to bountifully spread tables prepared by the sisters of this temple. After the inner man had been refreshed speeches were called for by the chairman. P. G. C. Adia Merguire responded in her usual forceful but emotional nature, touching upon the growth of this organization and the splendid work the honored guests had done for this temple. P. G. D. C. Sister Margaret Chloupek was next called upon. A letter from the Supreme Chief, Lydia A. Monroe, from Riverside, was read by the chairman. This letter was very pleasing to the members of this temple, as the supreme chief spoke very highly of the earnest work which P. G. C. Lillian Samuels had performed at the supreme conclave. Other speeches were called for and M. E. C. Sister Muehlenbruch, Brother Phil Journal and others responded touchingly. Finally the honored guest, P. G. C. Sister Samuels, was called for and was greatly applauded. A full report of the workings of the supreme lodge will be given by this sister next meeting night, October 17. All sisters and members are invited to be present. The supreme representative, Hon. Judge Samuels, was called for, and he responded in his usual eloquent manner. Next meeting night, October 17, at 8 o'clock sharp.

REBEKAH LODGE NO. 16.

On next Saturday evening Oakland Rebekah Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., will confer the initiatory degree, there being several applicants for admission by initiation. The members of the drill team are requested to be present. This lodge will give a Hallowe'en party on the 29th of this month. It is also planning a theater party, to be given in the near future. Reports of visiting committees showed a number of sick members on the list, the noble grand, Sister Ella Wilson, being among the number.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD.

Twenty-one new members were initiated and fourteen applications for membership were received at the last meeting of Oakland Lodge No. 123 of the Fraternal Brotherhood, held in Maple Hall Thursday evening, October 6. The drill team gave the secret work in a pleasing and impressive manner. After the regular routine business of the lodge, the members adjourned to the upper hall, where a "shirt-waist" party was held. There was a large attendance, excellent music was rendered for dancing, and the evening was very much enjoyed.

Tonight, at the conclusion of a brief business session, Oakland Lodge will hold an open meeting in Upper Maple Hall, to which a large number of invitations have been issued. The usual large crowd and enjoyable evening is anticipated.

Next Thursday evening will also be devoted to an open meeting.

On Thursday evening, October 27, the lodge will give a Hallowe'en party for members only. This promises to be one of the most delightful affairs the lodge has yet given. Many novel features are being planned by the various committees in charge and the success of the party is assured.

The fourth annual ball of Oakland Lodge will be given in Maple Hall on Thursday evening, December 8. Special committees are being appointed for this event.

The losing party in the contest between the "Red" and "Blue Boosters" of Oakland Lodge will give a banquet on November 10 at Maple Hall.

EASTERN STAR PARTY.

One of the most enjoyable dancing parties of the season will be given at Maple Hall on Monday evening, October 17, by Oakland Chapter No. 140, Order of the Eastern Star. Music will be rendered by the Fifth Regiment Orchestra. On the reception committee are Worthy Matron Edith M. Batcheldor, chairman; Ellen A. Laughland, Annie W. Jackson and Kate Mott. John Laughland and George A. Cockerton will be floor managers.

KNIGHTS OF MACCABEES.

Last Tuesday evening Argonaut Tent held one of the most interesting reviews in the history of the tent, the slight increase in rates to take effect the first of the year was thoroughly explained to the large attendance of members and they all went away satisfied with the increase and order at large. Several new applications were presented and next Tuesday evening the Degree Team will initiate a class of new members. Committees were appointed to make final arrangements for the fourth grand ball to be held next month, and also their secon musical and song recital.

A special dispensation has been granted the Tent and the boys intend to increase their membership to the 300 mark in the next sixty days.

All members are requested to be present next Tuesday evening as the entertainment committee has something special to spring on them after the meeting is over.

Sir Knights Past Commanders J. W. Murdock, A. L. Schafer, S. H. Stewart, C. D. Lawton, R. M. Brown and J. Rollin Fitch were presented with a past commander's jewel, the jewel was specially designed for the Tent by Sir Knight Ben Cohen.

BROTHERHOOD TOURNAMENTS.

Oakland Lodge No. 29, is arranging for a series of fine tournaments to be held at Ben Hur Hall, 1060 Broadway on Tuesday evenings. The first will be held October 18, the second November 1, the third, November 14, the fourth, November 29, and the fifth, December 13.

FOREST CIRCLE TOURNEY.

MAPLE LEAF LODGE.

Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 860, of the Fraternal Brotherhood met at Maple Leaf Hall last night. Sister Cora A. Merritt presiding. A very interesting meeting was held, five candidates initiated and several applications on the table. Supreme Representative Col. C. W. Stone was present and made a few interesting remarks. The whist party was well attended and a dance is to be given every Wednesday evening in the future.

THE AMERICANS.

This patriotic and fraternal order is making rapid strides in point of membership. The popularity of the name seems to have taken with the people and applications are pouring in rapidly to the various assemblies.

Garfield Assembly No. 12 was instituted last Monday at Fraternal Hall, West Oakland, with a good charter list, and prospects are excellent for a very large membership for this new Assembly.

General Organizer H. C. Lewis has just returned from an official visit to Stockton Assembly No. 8, where they amplified the floor work with the new drill team, consisting of twelve members carrying United States regulation rifles and the captain carrying a sword. There was a large class to initiate, and the work being done in the amplified form was an inspiring sight. His reports of the growth of the Assembly are very flattering.

The latest Assembly organized is Blain Assembly No. 14 of San Francisco, and under the generalship of Special Organizer Frank O'Reilly will soon become a formidable rival of the older San Francisco assemblies. Brother O'Reilly is a hustler, and he already has three assemblies to his credit.

Lincoln Assembly No. 7 of South Berkeley is one of the most active on the list, and under the leadership of J. W. Miles, who is now securing new members, will soon be among the larger assemblies on this side of the bay.

California Assembly No. 1 held an open meeting last Tuesday evening at Redmen's Hall, 220 Golden Gate avenue, which was a social success. Whist was also a feature of the evening for those who did not care to participate in the dance. Dr. A. B. Hubbell has instituted a contest for membership, which bids fair to assume formidable proportions and place No. 1 a considerable distance in the lead in point of membership.

Washington Assembly No. 3 is striving hard and has been initiating candidates every Friday evening for the past four months.

YEOMAN HOMESTEAD.

There are hustling times in Yeoman Homestead. Last evening's meeting of Oakland Homestead No. 839, Brotherhood of American Yeoman, was well attended and very enthusiastic. This Homestead will entertain the district convention on November 12, at I. O. O. F. Hall, corner Eleventh and Franklin streets. Get a hustle on and join. You don't know what you miss if you fail to.

PIEDMONT PARLOR No. 87.

Piedmont Parlor No. 87, N. D. G. W., will give a large whist tournament Thursday evening, November 13, in Ben Hur Hall, 1060 Broadway. The committee is working hard to make the venture a social, as well as a financial success. A number of fine prizes have been secured and the committee is composed of the following: Mrs. Jennie Jordan, chairman; Mrs. Annie McDonald, Mrs. Beda Pacheo, Mrs. Jennie Brown, Miss Alma Bock.

They are also making extensive preparations for a Hallowe'en party to be given on the last Thursday in this month.

LADIES' AID No. 1.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid Society No. 1, will hold their next regular meeting next Monday evening at Grove-street Hall. All members are requested to be present.

PACIFIC LODGE NO. 7.

Pacific Lodge, No. 7, A. O. U. W., meets this evening in Fraternal Hall, 1156 Washington street.

The committee of arrangements are completing the program for the open meeting and entertainment to be given in Fraternal Hall, 1156 Washington street on the evening of the 27th instant. The program will consist of a short address by Past Grand Master Hirshberg, a musical and literary program and dancing.

Next Saturday evening a new lodge of the order will be instituted at Point Richmond by Special Deputy Calvert. A delegation from Oakland will leave Fortieth and San Pablo avenue at 8 o'clock via the Santa Fe; at the conclusion of the institution a banquet will be held after which the visitors will be brought home in a bus.

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT.

Oakland Circle, No. 266, Women of Woodcraft, held a very enjoyable meeting last Saturday evening at which many pleasant gatherings were planned.

Saturday evening, the 22d, the circle will give an entertainment in Woodmen's Hall, and nothing but the best of local talent will render the evening's entertainment.

Neighbor Wilda Williams, chairman, is sparing no pains or expense to make it a success.

Wednesday evening, November 2, the circle will give a theatre party at the Liberty and those desiring seats can procure them of the members.

Saturday evening, October 15, the circle will initiate a large class of strangers. All visiting neighbors are invited to be present.

Those desiring to join the order should hurry up with their applications as the campaign with reduced rates will soon close.

NEWARK ITEMS

NEWARK, October 13.—The ball game between the Iver Johnsons and the Newark boys, which was deferred last Sunday on account of the rain, will take place Sunday next, and the proceeds will be for the Frank Cullen fund.

A member of the Iver Johnsons was injured by a fall into a cattleguard, near Arden on his return from Newark to Oakland last Sunday night. The young man was quite badly bruised.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society are making arrangements for a bazaar to be held in the course of the coming few weeks—probably near the holiday time.

There are rumors of a great manufacturing enterprise to be started here soon, but no one seems to know what the details are or who are the movers in the plan.

Will Wales died at the family home Wednesday morning. The young man has been in feeble health for a long time and his demise was daily expected.

The funeral services will be held at the home of his mother Friday at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Lovejoy took a trip to San Francisco on Wednesday of this week.

FOUND DEAD SIDE BY SIDE

RICHMOND, Va., October 13.—Miss Bessie Stone and Robert Gill, who eloped from Ashland Tuesday, were found with their hands clasped, dead, near a pond in that vicinty today by a searching party. A bullet hole in the head of each told the story of supposed double suicide or murder and suicide.

BEN HUR COURT.

Ben Hur Court, No. 12 continues to grow in popularity and number. There are new applications for membership and initiations every meeting night. The monthly social and dance will be given tomorrow evening.

Mother's Friend

OPERATIONS NOT ALWAYS NECESSARY.

Doctors Frequently Mistaken.

"I suffered untold agony with piles for over three years. Two doctors told me nothing but an operation would cure me. I tried different remedies, but nothing did me any good until I used Pyramid Pile Cure. I bought six different boxes at the drug store, and now I can do my work and go out, where before I spent most of my time lying down. I thank God for giving the discoverer the knowledge to make such a cure. I recommend it to all my friends, and if I ever have piles again will certainly use this remarkable remedy. You can use this in any way you wish to make known the wonderful merit of Pyramid Pile Cure." Mrs. William Mucky, 81 Marshall Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey.

The experience of this lady is that of thousands of others who have been assured that nothing short of an operation would rid them of this distressing complaint. On the face of it, it appears as if too many surgeons operate in order that they may keep their hand in, and lose no portion of their skill; then, again, too many surgeons are anxious to experiment (like the scientific man in Mark Twain's pathetic story of the dog and her little puppy), and do not have proper regard for a patient's physical welfare or condition.

We advise every sufferer to think twice before submitting to an operation for piles, and suggest that those interested write to the Pyramid Drug Company, Marshall, Michigan, for their little book on the causes and cure of piles, which is sent free for the asking.

DEMOCRATS OPEN CAMPAIGN AT THE MACDONOUGH.

Speeches Made By J. J. Barrett, Henry C. M'Pike and Geo. E. Faw—M. J. Laymance Calls Meeting to Order.

With the blare of a brass band and a meeting at the Macdonough Theatre last night the Democrats of Alameda county opened the political campaign which will end with the election in November next.

The meeting was called to order by M. J. Laymance, chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, who introduced Judge Niles Searls former Supreme Justice whom he stated would act as chairman of the meeting. The aged jurist presided over the assembly with an old-time grace.

The speakers of the evening were George E. Faw, candidate for the office of State Senator for the Fifteenth Senatorial district; Henry C. McPike, candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional district and John J. Barrett of San Francisco.

HON. J. J. BARRETT.

JUDGE N. SEARLS.

Upon his introduction Judge Searls said:

"Ladies and gentlemen and fellow citizens all. I was told when I came here to Alameda county to live some few years ago that if I wanted to find a Democratic associate I would have to leave the county; that there were not enough Democrats in Alameda county to raise an old fashioned Pennsylvania barn.

"I have, however, managed to get along while here and find a number of citizens of my political faith and I do not believe that the Democratic party can be charged with racial suicide.

"But I am not here to make speeches but to introduce the speakers and shall not waste time by further remarks."

GEORGE E. FAW.

The first speaker introduced was George E. Faw, who said in part:

"Ladies and Gentlemen:—I am proud to be introduced to you as the first speaker here this evening and also to be introduced by that grand old scion of Democracy, the Honorable Judge Niles Searls. Perhaps many of you do not know that Judge Searls first ascended the bench in California in 1855 and has the reputation of having made more law than any other man in it.

"We are here tonight to open the political campaign whose standard-bearer Judge Alton B. Parker we hope to put in the chair of the chief executive of these United States. You have been told that if any of you Democrats want associates you will have to leave Alameda county. Upon looking at this intelligent audience, I am, however, inclined to doubt this. (Cheers.)

"Republican orators are telling the people of this country that the rain even refuses to fall except when a Republican occupies the White House. That the Republican party is responsible for the prosperity attendant upon the discovery of gold in Alaska. We do not, however, hear the Republican party claiming credit for the murdered thousands of Americans occupying graves in far-away Manila. We find them stealing all the honors for the credit of the Isthmian Canal the bill for which was drawn up by that good Democrat, Newlands.

"We are willing to admit that the Republican party did aid in stealing a narrow strip of land for this canal from a weak puny nation in Central America.

"But I do not wish you to think that I am a candidate for President. I am not. I expect, however, to represent the Fifteenth Senatorial district in the next Legislature and I will guarantee to forgive my enemies and never forget my friends. I shall also do all in my power for the State University for which that great and good woman Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst, whose open heart and purse has done so much."

HENRY C. M'PIKE.

The next speaker introduced was Henry C. McPike who said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen:—It is naturally to be expected of one whose chances are as good as mine to have something very mean to say of my opponent. But I am not prepared to do this. Not that I love him less but because I love Alameda county more.

"Alameda county once held the banner for being the greatest Republican county in California but in an evil hour the banner left here and went south to the land of the consumptive and horned toad and I do not believe it will ever come back.

"The cause of this condition was a little thought. It seems incredible that one should connect the Republican party with thought but it is so, nevertheless.

"We had a bond election here a short time ago to vote $2,500,000 for the purpose of improving this great city, where Oakland and the Republican party are almost synonymous and they refused to do it. They immediately began to think of taxes. This Republican party placed on the statutes the McKinley and Dingley bills, two of the most exorbitant bills that ever passed the halls of Congress. If you will sit down and study the Dingley bill, the highest tariff tax ever placed on any civilized people and act upon that question as intelligently as did the people of Oakland at the recent bond election it will be impossible to pass another such bill.

"People have asked me why I accepted this nomination and I have told them all that it is honor enough for me to be on the same ticket with that great and good Democrat, Alton B. Parker. (Cheers.) With him in the chair of the chief executive, you will have nothing to fear. He will uphold the Constitution of the United States and you will not go astray in giving him your suffrage.

"But a word about my opponent. He has the advantage of being a much younger man than I am. It is a priceless privilege we all have once, youth. He is telling the people of this district that whenever he wants advice he will ask Victor H. Metcalf. That may be all right for him but I believe I have a mind of my own and I believe that if I did not have sufficient acumen for my guidance, I would give up the job and return to you as a private citizen and tell you to send a man there who could hold down the job.

"Suppose my opponent wanted to know something about the building of ships at Mare Island, what do you suppose Mr. Metcalf would say to him? I imagine something like this. 'Remember our shibboleth, stand pat upon our record, we have built two ships there in thirty years. Do not exceed the limit. Stand pat upon our record.'

"Do you think I would want to ask advice of a man like that?

"And again, suppose my young friend Mr. Knowland should ask Mr. Metcalf how big the Pacific Ocean was. What do you think he would say? At the dinner given him at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco, Mr. Metcalf said that the Pacific Ocean covered one-fourth of the face of the globe. In all my geographies I was told that it covered a half of the entire face of this earth. But since Mr. Metcalf has been raised so near our fiery-headed President, his head has swollen until everything else, even the Pacific Ocean has shrunk in proportion."

JOHN J. BARRETT.

The speaker of the evening, John J. Barrett was then introduced and said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen. It is very seldom that any nation plunges headlong into ruin by a single leap. It is not uncommon for an individual to accomplish his utter destruction in an instant by a single act of self-willed or accidental destruction.

"It is rare for a nation to step instantly from life to death. It is scarcely to be feared that any people can become so foolhardy in a night as to bring down inevitable and immediate ruin on them in the morning. Nations flourish and decay much along the same lines and by the same inexorable laws as men develop and die, but they are seldom summoned from their follies or their sins in an instant or unwarned.

"It would seem that providence has specially favored the families of men by exemption from sudden death, by giving them time to realize the oncoming ruin, by giving them sufficient vitality to throw off the dread diseases that fasten on the body politic, and by ringing loud and shrill from every sunken rock and by flashing clear and far from every treacherous shore constant messages of warning and of guidance.

"This lease of life, as it might be called, that is given to nations seems, however, to have been balanced and offset by a terrible infirmity. Once let a nation become fairly subject to a mortal malady, and there seems to be no human agency that can stay its dread development. Once let a nation set its face firmly and knowingly in a wrong direction, and nothing can change its course. Once give a nation a false lead, and it will soon acquire a momentum that cannot be overcome, even when the death-dealing precipice looms up before it. Once give a nation a bad habit, and it will grow and grow against every treatment until it consumes its victim. Once give the poison a start in the system of the state, and despite every antidote it will torture and rack and kill.

"With these examples before us, and his law written on our nature, and this infirmity inherent in our make-up, it behooves us at all times to be vigilant, not so much against the black deed that is stamped all over with unmistakable wickedness, not so much against the official, the party or the policy that is here and now bad, that is immediately wicked that grievously sins against established laws, that does enormous wrong to our present interests or our passing good. We shall suffer little at any time in those directions. Misconduct of such glaring character is sure to be promptly and duly dealt with. There is no danger but that it will always be seen that matters aboard ship go well; that the cargo is balanced in the hold, that the lamps are trimmed and bright, that all the crew are at their posts, and that the boiler is sound and that the sails are set. The danger is not there. We must beware of our tendencies. We must look out for our drift. We must watch the compass and study the chart. We must scan the horizon and consult the stars.

"We can afford to experiment with measures or policies that affect the fortunes of today alone and can be reversed or modified or repealed tomorrow. Of course it is well in these matters, too, to be right at the start, to be sure that they rest on sound principles, to make them tell for expanded material returns and the fullest measure of all the creature comforts for all the people.

REGULATIONS OF TARIFF.

"Of course it is only the part of ordinary wisdom to so regulate our tariff schedules that when people consent to bear a tax upon the necessities and comforts of life that are brought to them across our borders, to furnish funds to conduct the Government, this legitimate and constitutional purpose shall not be prostituted to glut the coffers of a limited class and to enable the federated wealth of every leading line of industry to sell its wares in the other markets of the world at half-the cost they are sold to those who bear the tax that makes the plunder possible, and by driving domestic competition from the field, to levy tribute as they will, and then make the infamy complete to swell their capital beyond its value and put its bloated stock upon the market to lure to ruin the unsuspecting and idle savings it has driven from the field.

"Of course it is well to insist upon an honest and economical administration of the government. It is well to insist upon getting at the bottom in every department of the government, of a state of things that has shown itself in almost incredible foulness in the postal department,—particularly as the Government, though amply provided with funds is running behind; particularly as the present Executive found a surplus of ninety millions and left a deficit at the end of the fiscal year just closed of almost fifty million dollars, particularly as the expenses of the Government under the last year of Mr Roosevelt, not including the fifty millions paid to Panama, more than doubled the first year of Grover Cleveland; particularly by reason of that fact that though the cost of running the country through the recent war was half a billion dollars per year, during the last three years and in time of peace it has swollen to the extravagant sum of five hundred and nineteen million dollars.

"As a matter of course these are evils that bring merited condemnation on the heads of those responsible for them, and a people that could disregard, condone or approve them would indeed have fallen into a recklessness and extravagance that would surely breed demoralization in more vital matters.

"But important and serious as these excesses are, after all they can be cured in a day. They affect only the passing hour. They can be remedied at will. They show their vice to every passing glance. Their mischievous results are seen and felt on every hand.

"This Government has been the despair of despots the world over and the hope of the liberty-loving because it has sprung from a declaration of principles the most just and salutary that were ever announced by man, and because it has developed along the lines of a Constitution pronounced by the master statesmen of the world the most perfectly balanced, the safest and most enduring scheme of government that was ever devised by man. It has stood the test of time. It has proved its mettle in a hundred flames. It has been violated little throughout the years. It has been fairly recognized as the basis, the test, the mode, the measure and the limitation of governmental action. The citizen has learned to look upon it as the guarantee and safeguard of his liberties. Legislators, judges and executives have stood in awe of its grants of authority, its division of powers its limitations of jurisdiction and its system of checks and balances against the usurpation of rights and the invasion of functions by one department against another.

SELLING OF PRINCIPLE.

"But a dangerous tendency has set in and unless it is checked and checked soon we shall lose our character as a constitutional government. The Constitution has fallen upon evil days. Officials in high places shrug their shoulders at its restrictions. Its most fundamental principles have become a dead letter and are lightly weighed against the material advantages that have been bought by their surrender.

"An entire race of people, cast across our path by the fortunes of war, has been seized and held as a subject race, against its will, and without a clause, and with no assurance of any future say in the determination of its status or any participation in that equality before the law, or those other fundamental rights and privileges with which the Constitution says that every man is inalienably endowed by God.

"This same contempt for constitutional restraints has worked out in other directions during the last eight years of Republican rule, until today there comes before the American people for a further lease of power a man who, above all others in the land, typifies that impatience of constitutional restraints, that superiority to the law, that unbalanced zest for conquest beyond the scope of the national purpose, that spectacular assertion of national power and a youthful eagerness to put it to the test and prove it. Theodore Roosevelt has no reverence for the Constitution, or the fundamental law of our being. The only measure of authority that he has recognized has been his own whims. Congress refused to pass a pension law fixing an absolute age of disability. The self-willed autocrat took the matter into his own hands, fixed the age at 62, and with one stroke of his pen provided for the distribution of millions of dollars not a cent of which, according to the Constitution, is within his legitimate control. Not one of his apologists has made a pretense at justifying this usurpation of power on legal lines. The only answer that has been made is the taunting inquiry, will the Democrats dare to revoke it?

POLITICAL TRAFFICKING.

"It ought to be beneath the dignity of the Chief Executive of the greatest nation on earth to make political traffic out of the broken bodies of its veteran defenders by a wanton invasion of the Constitution he is sworn to respect and which they so gallantly fought and bled to make supreme and to preserve unsullied. The old soldier will never become an issue in the United States. We vie with one another, without regard to political lines, in tender solicitude for his declining days, and unless the old mettle that made him great in the days gone by is forever dead the old soldier will be the first to resent the infamous bargain of battering the Constitution for the soldier vote.

"The crying evil of the hour is lawlessness, not in the citizen but in the Government, and it holds more peril in its hand than all the other ills that we complain of. It is running riot with the Constitution. It is the order of the day with the Republican party and Theodore Roosevelt.

"To meet this supreme evil of the day, the Democratic party has chosen a man whose life since manhood began has stood for one thing—the supremacy of law; a man schooled in the history, the letter and the spirit of the Constitution, imbued with a reverence for that fundamental policy of the land; trained to reverence that great instrument of the fathers; who realizes what a solemn covenant a Constitution is and what a sacrilege it is to violate it. His temper is fitted to the hour. His career, his conduct, his opinions, his letters indicate a calm, judicial, deliberate, sane and sound mind—the antithesis of his opponent.

"He stands in his own State, much as our Chief Justice stands in California. In his judicial career all parties have endorsed him for the exalted office he has filled for years with credit and reproach. He is truly in all particulars the very man whom Providence has marked to command the Government in the present crisis, when the fundamental law threatens to go by the board and when the nation's supreme need is to be brought back to honor and obey the Magna Charta of its liberties. The hour calls for the restoration of the Constitution. The hour calls for a great exponent and champion of the Constitution.

"The man of the hour is that wise, pure, calm, great Judge—Alton B. Parker."

QUIET WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Florence Taylor and James Ireland took place last evening at the home of the bride on Fourteenth street. It was one of the interesting events of the week, since both young people have a host of friends here. The marriage service was read by Rev. Ernest E. Baker of the First Presbyterian Church in the presence of a few relatives and near friends. At the reception following the ceremony over 200 guests were present.

In the drawing-room, where the ceremony was performed, the decorations were in pink and green carnations and ferns. A canopy had been formed of bamboo and pale tints of green, where the ceremony was performed. The dining-room was in pink and green and the living room was prettily decorated with scarlet blossoms.

The bride was gowned in white lace over taffeta, made with a train and elaborated with white chiffon. The bodice was made with a transparent yoke and a long tulle veil completed the bridal costume. The bride carried lillies of the valley.

Miss Mabel Taylor of Astoria was the bride's attendant and was gowned in a pink organdie made over white taffeta. The groom was attended by Dr. C. F. Jarvis.

Mrs. Taylor, mother of the bride, wore a beautiful gown of black lace over taffeta and Mrs. Ireland was gowned in black silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ireland will spend a honeymoon in the Southern part of the State and on their return will make their home across the bay.

INFORMAL AFFAIR.

Miss Sally Hampton was hostess yesterday at an informal tea given at her home on Jackson street. It was a neighborhood affair and very informal planned in honor of Mrs. Frank S. Adams, who has recently come to make her home in Oakland.

Those who assisted Miss Hampton in her duties as hostess included Mrs. Edson F. Adams, Mrs. George H. Wheaton, Mrs. Allen Harwood Babcock, Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts, Miss Florinne Brown, Mrs. Charles A. Walkeley, Mrs. M. W. Kales, Miss Elsie Fry, Miss Ruth Kales, Miss Rose Kales, Miss Anita Thomson and Mrs. T. B. Coghill.

A LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Frank C. Watson is planning to entertain a number of friends tomorrow at an informal luncheon to be given at her home on Thirteenth street. After the luncheon a pleasant hour will be spent playing five hundred.

DONALDSON-CHASE.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Donaldson of 2828 Washington street, San Francisco, Miss Mabel Donaldson became the bride of George Q. Case. It was a beautiful home wedding and in the drawing room, where a bower had been arranged for the bridal party, tall white chrysanthemums and green boughs were used with splendid effect.

The bride wore a beautiful robe of chiffon satin, made with a train. The bodice was finished with a berthe and a deep yoke. She wore a veil and carried lillies of the valley.

A bevy of pretty attendants preceded the bride, including Miss Helen Chase, the groom's sister, as maid of honor, and Mrs. Nelson Chase, the bride's sister, as matron of honor, in the loveliest of white lace gowns, carrying armfuls of pink tiger lilies. Then came the four bridesmaids, Miss Alice Treanor, Miss Emma Moffatt, Miss Helen Davis and Miss Lalla Wenzelburger, in white French net, flowered in a pattern of huge pink roses. Garlands of pink and white cosmos were carried by the quartet. Nelson Eckart served Mr. Chase as best man, and Rev. William Kirk Guthrie read the words of the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase will leave today for St. Louis, and, after visiting there, will go on to the Atlantic side, to be absent about five weeks.

They will make their home in Piedmont.

FABIOLA PLANS.

The ladies of the Fabiola Hospital Association will hold a meeting Friday afternoon to make plans for raising funds necessary for hospital improvements. The addition to the Nurses' Training Home in connection with the hospital is now under way and a thoroughly modern and up-to-date annex, including an auditorium for clinics will soon be complete. Mrs. Regan has personally supervised the improvements and the expense of the splendid structure will amount to about $12,000.

For raising this fund the energetic women of Fabiola have set themselves to work and the plans Friday will no doubt be for a large charitable affair, in which the Fabiola ladies and their friends have been so successful in the past.
